Answers – Audio software Level 3
Assignment B

Task A1
Plan the script for your voiceover.

Task A2
List the:

- sounds to be used
- source of the voiceover to be used, including hardware and software used to record/download the voice over
- background music used
- source of the animal sounds to be used
- source of the background music used
- provide guidance on any copyright constraints that affect the use of your own sounds and sounds created by others
- input device you will use to capture the sounds and voiceover.

Task A3
Analyse and explain the impact file size and file format will have on saving files:

Task A4
Explain any potential compatibility issues between combinations of input device and audio software.

Task B1
Identify:

the order in which you will use your sound clips
any sections that you will remove from the sound clips any modifications you will make to your voiceover.

Task B5
Identify settings that have been used to adjust and improve the quality of your sound sequence.
Evaluate the quality of the sequences.

Task C2
Identify the playback software and hardware which should be different to the editing software.

Task C3
Describe the features and constraints of the playback software and hardware.