

Unit 301: Developing opportunities for progression in the culinary industry

Activity 6: Assessing development activities

Different assessments methods can be used to measure the success of the development of skills and knowledge.

For each of the following development activities, state the most suitable method to use to confirm the outcomes and level of success.

Compare and discuss your suggestions with your peers.

Development activity	Assessment method
Completion of an internal training programme
Completion of a food safety qualification
Shadowing an experienced chef de partie
Delivering an update on cooking and presentation of a new menu to the team
Attending a master class on advanced cookery skills
Taking part in a national skills competition
