City & Guilds

501/1690/3 Level 1 Award in Warehousing and Storage

OVERVIEW

- What does this qualification cover?

This qualification provides an introduction to the warehousing and storage. It covers the following:

- Health and safety in the workplace
- Cleanliness of equipment in logistics operations
- Required stock levels in a logistics environment
- Wrapping and packing goods in a logistics environment

It covers the essential and basic elements of warehousing and storage and allows further progression.

This is a Framework qualification.

- Who could take this qualification?

This qualification is suitable for learners of all ages looking to gain a basic understanding of the warehousing and storage industry as part of a wider programme of study. The Award in Warehousing and Storage allows learners to progress in smaller steps than the larger qualifications, helping to motivate learners and allow those returning to education after a considerable gap in time or lacking in confidence, to gain achievement. It is particularly relevant to JCP clients. It is suitable for adult returnees and those undergoing a career change.

WHAT COULD THIS QUALIFICATION LEAD TO?

This qualification could lead to a range of warehousing jobs, including:

- Warehouse operative
- Stock control assistant
- Removals operative
- Warehouse supervisor.

The learner could progress onto a Warehousing and Storage apprenticeship at Level 2 or other qualifications such as:

- Level 2 Certificate in Warehousing and Storage
- Level 3 Diploma in Warehousing and Storage
- Level 2 and Level 3 Certificates in Logistics Operations Management
- Level 2 Award in Fork Lift Truck (Counterbalance) Operations
