Children and young people qualifications

Centres' information

City & Guilds has the most extensive range of Children and Young People qualifications available. This means we have the right qualification at the right level for anyone who works, or wants to work, in the children and young people sector.

This guide gives details of the types and levels of vocational qualifications on offer, exploring the details of our Children and Young People portfolio, allowing you to find the most suitable qualification to meet your centre's needs.

Why City & Guilds?

The choice couldn't be more simple. We are the leading provider of vocational qualifications in the UK with over 125 years of vocational education expertise. So we have everything you need in one place to cover your needs in the children and young people sector.

To help centres through the complexities of regulation in this sector, we have a specialist network of national/regional Advisers who provide support and advice, so centres can confidently interpret and deliver our qualifications.

With innovative use of technology we offer further support to our centres with an online registration/administration service via the Walled Garden, and tutors/assessors/verifiers can use SmartScreen to support the delivery of our qualifications to learners.

Qualification title	Type	Levels	Description	City & Guilds number
Children and Young People Services
Children's Care Learning and Development (CCLD)	NVQ/ SVQ	2-4	Designed to help anyone in a Children's Care Learning & Development setting, working with children in the age range of 0-16, to prove their skills. There are three levels, with one to suit everyone, from those working in a supporting role, right up to managers.	3171/ 3174
Children's Care Learning and Development, Certificate (CCLD)	VRQ	2-3	This qualification is the approved Technical Certificate for CCLD. It is also a stand alone certificate and the perfect complement to the City & Guilds N/SVQ. At two levels, it is designed for people who are both new to this field or those who need help building or confirming their knowledge, skills and understanding in order to progress their career. The level 2 VRQ is also suitable for 14-16 year-old learners.	3177
Work with Children	VRQ	3	This qualification is specifically designed for workers (aged over 25 years, working in a level 3 role) in an early years or playwork setting, who have gained sufficient experience and learning in their setting to have this formally accredited through a fast-track system. This is via assessment of prior experience and learning (APEL).	3596
Playwork
Playwork	NVQ	2-4	These City & Guilds NVQs cover all the skills and knowledge essential to prove competence as a professional playworker (eg crèches, after-school and holiday play clubs). Level 2 is suitable for playworkers, level 3 is for supervisors and level 4 is for playwork managers.	4833/ 4834
Playwork	VRQ	2-3	These are suitable for anyone who works or wants to work with school aged children (typically 4-16) in a variety of playwork settings, which could include after-school clubs, adventure playgrounds, play schemes, or as school lunch supervisors. It is the ideal complement to the NVQs. This qualification allows learners to choose between the full diploma and a smaller certificate.	6978
Transitional Awards
Award in Early Years and Childcare for Playworkers	VRQ	3	One of two 'transitional' awards designed to make the transition from playwork to early years care, if they already hold a relevant qualification in that area. A relevant qualification is considered to be one that appears on the NQF of the four nations. This offers transition for someone holding a level 3 Playwork award, to working in the early years sector.	3177-10

Qualification title	Type	Levels	Description	City & Guilds number
Award in Playwork for Early Years and Childcare Workers	VRQ	3	The second 'transitional' award to make the transition from early years care to playwork, if they already hold a relevant qualification in that area. A relevant qualification is considered to be one that appears on the NQF of the four nations; ie transition to playwork for someone holding a level 3 Early Years or CCLD qualification.	6978-10
Safeguarding
Safeguarding Children and Young People	VRQ	3	Developed with the NSPCC this qualification is designed to support good practice and understanding of safeguarding within organisations and settings supporting individuals to deliver better services for children, young people and their families. As this qualification builds on basic child protection issues it is expected that individuals will have prior experience in this area.	3597

Youthwork
Youthwork NYA Endorsed	NVQ	2-3	Designed for youth support workers helping young people aged between 11 and 25 to develop personally and socially. Endorsed by the National Youth Agency, they're aimed at people working in a range of settings with young people, both frontline workers and those with more supervisory responsibilities.	9248
Youthwork NYA Endorsed	VRQ	3	Endorsed by the National Youth Agency as the appropriate certificates for youth support workers. A wide range of units are available and they are also recognised within the JNC pay scale. Level 2 is appropriate to people 16 years and older, with level 3 to people 18 years and upwards.	9247
Social Care
Health and Social Care: Children and Young People	NVQ	3-4	Our N/SVQ in Health and Social Care offer pathways at both level 3 and 4 for people working with children and young people. They are suitable for those who work in residential care, as well as in health, youth justice and education settings.	3172
Health and Social Care: Children and Young People, Certificate	VRQ	3	Designed to support learners who are either employed or undertaking work experience in health or social care settings. This qualification is based on the knowledge specifications from the core units of the City & Guilds N/SVQs in Health and Social Care. Learners are assessed by assignments and there is no external test.	3179
Managers in Residential Child Care	NVQ	4	This qualification includes the broad range of management skills needed in care services for children and young people in a residential setting. It's designed for managers regulated by the Commission for Social Care Inspection (CSCI) in England and the Care Standards Inspectorate (CSIW) in Wales, helping them prepare for and meet the emerging regulatory requirements.	3066
Teaching and Schools
Teaching Assistants	NVQ	2-3	Ideal for learners who work in a supportive role in a classroom in primary, secondary, or special school. The role can involve working with a wider group of pupils or having specific responsibility for an individual.	7327
Classroom Assistants (N.Ireland)	NVQ	2-3	This is designed especially for classroom assistants in Northern Ireland and is similar to the (7327) City & Guilds Teaching Assistants	7316
Support Work in Schools	VRQ	2	Developed for support staff in schools, it covers a wide range of roles, including administrators, site managers, caretakers, midday supervisors. Its flexible structure allows learners to select units to match their role and it could help progression to further qualifications. Learners gain either an award or full certificate at level 2.	7377

Specialist Leaders of Behaviour and attendance of Children/ Young People	VRQ	3-4	This qualification is designed to equip learners with the knowledge and skills needed by a specialist leader of behaviour and attendance. Learners may be employed in a range of posts within the school setting or they may be from other teams within the Local Education Authority.	7301
Youth Justice
Youth Justice Services	NVQ	3-4	Developed to support the work of individuals working with young offenders (or those at risk of offending) across the UK in a variety of settings. Level 3 is suitable for individuals who work directly with children and young people, level 4 for those with a high level of responsibility within youth justice services. Achieving these NVQs can provide a route into professional qualifications or into working with young people in other settings.	7498
Community Justice: Youth Justice	VRQ	3	This qualification is best suited to those who are involved in the youth justice sector in a voluntary or casual capacity who would like to extend their knowledge and understanding of the sector.	7497

Why City & Guilds?

Every qualification you need in one place

We have the widest range of qualifications in the children and young people industry sector, including both N/SVQs and VRQs. We design our qualifications for the real world, taking into account the circumstances of the people who will actually use them. That's why our qualifications are suitable for full-time, part-time, paid, unpaid and voluntary workers.

Specialist Advisers

Because of the complexity of regulation, we have a network of expert Advisers, who specialise in this area, to help you develop and enhance your service, ensuring you can confidently interpret and deliver our qualifications. The Advisers have their own separate contact details, so you can phone or email directly. They also run regular local networks and surgeries to allow our centres to meet and share best practice.

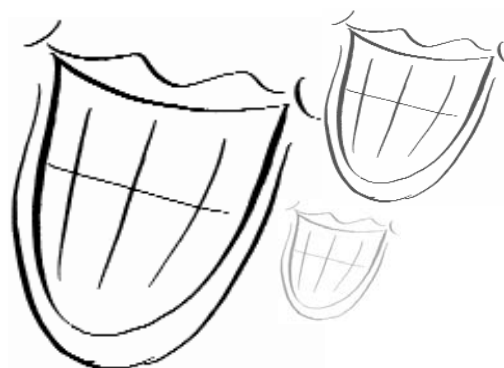

The Walled Garden

Free to all centres, the Walled Garden allows you to register your candidates online, at your convenience, saving you administration time. You can also: check examination details and entries; your approval status; enter results and keep a record of them; check the latest Directory of City & Guilds qualifications; order books, exam papers and CD-ROMs; on-line - 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

SmartScreen.co.uk

SmartScreen Provides dedicated unit-specific support for tutors, assessors and learners of City & Guilds qualifications and is available for both the N/SVQs and Certificates in Children's Care Learning and Development. For a nominal fee per level per year you'll enjoy access to: Interactive drag and drop exercises; lesson plans; handouts and activities; worksheets; and much more...
