

Personal specification for Independent End-point Assessor

Plasterer L3

Essential industry specific qualifications and experience

Up-to-date, relevant, and broad experience of working in the occupational area of the apprenticeship standard including practical and current knowledge of working practices which reflect the whole standard content.

Have excellent knowledge and understanding of the apprenticeship standard as set out in in the support documents

Have an understanding of the sector and the assessment requirements for the standard

Be a competent plasterer with sufficient and current industry experience

Be qualified to at least NVQ L3 or equivalent in plastering

Solid Plasterer	Fibrous Plasterer
Understanding of H&S legislation and application on the job. Experience of providing and working with a range of customers and other parties within the built environment.	Understanding of H&S legislation and application on the job. Experience of providing and working with a range of customers and other parties within the built environment.
General understanding of construction methods and techniques used in domestic and commercial builds.	General understanding of construction methods and techniques used in domestic and commercial builds.
Experience in constructing in-situ moulds, taking squeezes, and running moulds, including repair.	Experience in constructing in-situ moulds, taking squeezes and running moulds, including repair.
Skilled in applying one and two coat plastering, fixing boarding to solid, timber and metal structures.	Skilled in applying one and two coat plastering, fixing boarding to solid, timber and metal structures.
Skilled and experience in applying three coat plastering, rendering systems, and screeds.	Skilled and experience in producing reverse mouldings and the reproduction of existing mouldings to restore and conserve.

Essential qualifications and experience

A competent plasterer with sufficient and current industry experience qualified to at least level 3 or equivalent in plastering
Must be able to evidence relevant and up-to-date CPD, which is related directly to the standard and industry, not general CPD

Essential knowledge and skills

Have an understanding of apprenticeship standards, with specific knowledge about the relevant industry area

Experience of producing clear, accurate and concise written reports.

Proficient IT skills.

Have analytical and critical thinking skills.

Excellent interpersonal skills.

Excellent written and verbal communication skills with substantive experience of providing supportive, concise feedback to both learners, Assessors and delivery staff.

Organisational skills and the ability to priorities effectively.

Ability to work independently

Availability

Flexibility to travel across UK

Driving License

Desirable

Experience of preparing for and presenting to a target audience

Experience of marking and grading assessments

Holds or is working towards a relevant recognised assessor qualification

Quality Assurance and Improvement Team,
January 2019