Candidate declaration

Please read the following declaration to the Examiner:

I have not acquired from any other source, any knowledge of the nature of the questions in relation to the Veterinary Nursing Patient-based Assessment.

I will not discuss the content of the examination with any other party including family, friends and colleagues.

I will not record, take pictures or screenshots and/or share any part of this exam by any method including social media or messaging applications.

I acknowledge that if I am found to be in possession of any such prohibited device, material, or equipment which is considered a breach, it may lead to me being disqualified or in serious cases, being prevented from entering the RCVS register.

City & Guilds
A City & Guilds Group Business