

Hospitality & catering apprenticeships and qualifications

Over one million people earn a City & Guilds qualification every year, giving them the skills they need to thrive in the workplace.

As a global leader in skills development, we have the unrivalled resources to upskill workforces for the here and now. We do this by bringing together four key elements:

Apprenticeships in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland

We work closely with employers and public sector organisations to make sure our apprenticeship programme helps organisations build a more qualified and better-trained workforce with the right skills for the job.

Technical Qualifications

City & Guilds Level 2 and 3 Technical Qualifications are developed in collaboration with industry for 14-19 year olds to give learners the most up-to-date and relevant technical skills they need to succeed in their chosen career path – be that onto a job, university or an apprenticeship.

English and Maths pre-employment qualifications

Functional skills needed to succeed in all aspects of life and work.

Worldchefs global culinary certification

We are continuously looking for new and innovative ways of meeting the needs of the industry and have worked with Worldchefs to launch the first global culinary certification in the world. This certification recognises skills and experience gained in the workplace and provides a career development framework for culinary professionals.
