1. About City & Guilds Continuing Professional Development Events

1.1. Introducing City & Guilds Continuing Professional Development Events

City & Guilds Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Events have been developed in response to customer demand and are designed to:

- enhance the professional development of your qualification delivery teams and
- to elevate delivery of educational standards

Customers can choose from a comprehensive menu of interactive online and in-person sessions. Each event will be supported and facilitated by City & Guilds Technical Advisers who have cultivated extensive expertise in teaching and assessment within the Further Education, and the wider Work-based Learning sector.

1.2. Different kind of events

Event Type	Key features	Where can I find further information?
Standard in-person event	An immersive experience with direct interaction and networking opportunities, therefore delegate places are capped at a maximum of 20, and a minimum of 12.	The details for these events will be published on Eventbrite. Places available will be bookable by individual delegates from different centres/providers.
Online 90–120-minute event	Online events offer flexible learning from the comfort of your own space. To facilitate a positive learning experience delegate places are capped at a maximum of 25, and a minimum of 12
Bespoke event	Depending on the selected event title, these options are available either as online or in-person events, arranged to suit the needs of an individual City & Guilds approved provider, typically at their associated centre address, or similar. To ensure a positive delegate experience places are capped at a maximum of 20, and a minimum of 12	These types of events will be available on request and are exclusively for approved City & Guilds customers. Dates, times and venues will be negotiated with your Business Development Managers (BDM) or your Customer Account Manager

1.3. Event resources

Delegates will receive a comprehensive delegate pack that will include:

- event overview and agenda
- information to support group activities
- worksheets and notes pages

1.4. Digital Credentials

Delegates will be awarded a digital credential to showcase their participation, active engagement and development journey during the session. This credential may also be used to evidence ongoing continuing professional development and will include the title of the event attended.

Please note that digital credentials can only be awarded to delegates who have provided an appropriate email address. Please take time to view our Privacy Statement

1.5. How to book an event

3.1. (1) Practical Embedding: Integrating Maths and English Skills in Vocational Courses

Are you finding it a challenge to embed maths and English skills into your vocational lessons?

Our solution: Join the City & Guilds CPD event for practical embedding: Integrating maths and English skills in vocational courses.

Key benefits:

Enhanced Understanding of Embedding and Contextualisation: We will explore the key differences between embedding and contextualisation, gaining insights into their importance in enhancing learning outcomes.

Overcoming Common Barriers: We will examine common barriers faced by both vocational tutors and learners. By identifying these challenges and exploring practical strategies to overcome them, tutors can create a more supportive and effective learning environment.

Practical Implementation Techniques: Participants will be able to recognise and implement embedding and contextualisation within their specific vocational areas. This hands-on approach ensures that tutors can directly apply what they learn to improve their teaching practices and student engagement.

Session Overview:

The session will last approximately 90 minutes and will be delivered online or as an in-person event. We aim to equip vocational tutors and assessors with valuable insights and strategies for effectively embedding maths and English skills within vocational teaching.

During the session, common barriers faced by vocational tutors and learners will be examined, practical strategies to overcome these challenges will be explored, and methods to recognise and implement embedding and contextualisation within your specific vocational areas will be learned.

Event Agenda

- Session overview
- Group activity
- Differences between embedding and contextualisation
- The value of embedding: why it is important for vocational success
- Understanding common barriers from both teacher and learner perspectives
- Embedding and contextualisation in vocational areas activity
- Accessing further support by City & Guilds

3.2. (2) Understanding Barriers and Creating Inclusive Learning Environments for ESOL learners on English and Maths Courses

Are you looking to enhance the learning experience for students with English as another language on Maths and English courses?

Our solution: Join our comprehensive session designed to equip tutors with the understanding and strategies to effectively support ESOL learners in Maths and English courses.

Key Benefits:

Overcoming Barriers: Gain insight into the common challenges faced by ESOL learners and how to address them.

Practical Strategies: Explore practical techniques to create an inclusive learning environment and improve learner outcomes.

Enhanced Support: Discover methods to better support ESOL learners, ensuring they achieve their full potential.

Session Overview

The session will last approximately 90 minutes and will be delivered online or as an in-person event. The aim to equip vocational tutors and assessors with the understanding and tools necessary to effectively support learners who have English as another language and who are enrolled on maths and English courses, fostering an inclusive learning environment.

We will address common barriers experienced by these learners, introduce practical strategies to overcome these challenges, highlight valuable digital resources widely available to both educators and learners, and how to enhance the educational experience for all learners, regardless of their language background.

Event Agenda

- Session overview
- Group activity
- Understanding common barriers
- Strategies to support teaching and learning
- Widely available resources to support teaching and learning
- Accessing support

3.3. (3) Assessment Literacy and Strategies for Exam-based Teaching and Learning

Are you concerned that your students may not achieve their full potential in exams?

Our Solution: Join our comprehensive session designed to equip educators with the tools and knowledge to help students excel in their exams.

Key Benefits:

Assessment Literacy: Gain insights into helping students effectively analyse and understand exam questions.

Exam Training Strategies: Learn proven techniques to enhance students' exam preparation and performance.

Scenario-Based Question Techniques: Discover methods to support students in tackling complex, scenario-based questions with confidence.

Session overview

The session will last approximately 3 hours and will be delivered as an in-person event at regional or provider locations. This session is intended for vocational tutors delivering external dated entry exam-based qualifications, for example Technical Qualifications at level 2 and above. The session will be generic and will not focus on a specific sector.

We will focus on teaching and learning strategies and techniques that vocational tutors/assessors can apply within their teaching to enhance learners understanding of exam techniques in most technical and vocational sectors.

The session will look at different question types and the importance of learners understanding assessment terminology to maximise their understanding of exam techniques.

The session will be delivered as an interactive session looking at a range of question types and will include top tips to support your learners.

Event Agenda

- Session overview
- Definition and importance of assessment terminology, including the use of command verbs
- Deconstructing different types of exam questions
- Strategies for exam-based teaching and learning
- Writing an extended response answer
- Hints and tips for your learners

3.4. (4) High Quality Assessment Practice: Internal Quality Assurance

City & Guilds requires that Internal Quality Assurers act as ‘guardians of the Standards’.
Are you confident that your internal quality assurers can consistently meet this expectation so that your City & Guilds centre and qualification approval can be successfully maintained?

Our Solution: Whether experienced or new to the role, our interactive development event is designed to provide your internal quality assurers with the knowledge and skills they need to confidently establish, maintain, and review the delivery and assessment of vocational programmes of study.

About City & Guilds

Since 1878, City & Guilds has been dedicated to advancing the skills that people, organisations and societies need to thrive, both now and in the future.

As the global skills partner, we empower organisations to grow by creating and delivering comprehensive end-to-end solutions. These include high-quality skills training and credentials designed to meet the evolving needs of industries and workforces. Through our trusted network of colleges and training provider partners, learners across the globe develop skills and competencies that lead to employment and career progression.

Each year, over 5.1 million learners of all ages and backgrounds benefit from City & Guilds learning programmes, which have contributed £15.3bn to society in the UK alone. We champion workforce development and technical training routes that drive social mobility, prosperity, and success. By working closely with industries and governments, we also advocate for improvements across the global skills landscape.

Our City & Guilds Foundation amplifies this purpose by focusing on high-impact social investment, recognition, and advocacy programmes. These initiatives aim to remove barriers to employment, celebrate best practice on the job, and advocate for jobs of the future.

City & Guilds Training, Gen2, Intertrain, ILM, Kineo and The Oxford Group brands are all a part of City & Guilds.
