- Lesson plans - tutors can save valuable preparation time - City & Guilds have planned it all for you.
- Sample schemes of work - an ideal guide for tutors and centres to ensure that all the learning requirements are covered when delivering the qualification.
- Handouts - provide a convenient way of providing key information to learners in a classroom setting. They save tutors time and give learners the confidence that they are receiving the information they require.
- Activities - an outstanding range of training activities that will keep learners engaged and motivate them to learn more.
- PowerPoint presentations – slide decks that allow tutors to save valuable preparation time, while still delivering a professional and engaging presentation in the classroom.
- Sample Assignments – are available for use as they are provided by City & Guilds, or can be adapted by centres (with QC approval).
- Revision guidance and cards - summarise the key points of each unit and can include engaging activities such as crossword puzzles and word search games. They will help build learner confidence of assessment.
- A selection of projects allows tutors to set longer, more detailed pieces of work for learners.
- Glossaries provide a quick reference to reinforce key information and terms.

Every qualification is supported by an invaluable tutor discussion forum that is monitored by an expert in the field. You can ask advice, seek views and share best practice with the thousands of other tutors already actively using SmartScreen as well as obtain a speedy response from an industry expert to any questions you may have.

Why choose Smartscreen?

Shake learning up	Offers flexibility in lesson delivery and learning styles.
