About this manual

This form-fillable PDF training manual aligns directly to the Level 3 Information Communication Technician standard and provides coverage of the key skills. Tasks cover the core skills and three optional pathways (support technician, network technician and digital communications technician).

It is an invaluable supporting resource which will help learners, tutors and employers in understanding what is required of them as part of the on-programme learning.

In completing the tasks contained within the manual, which can be saved electronically, learners will gain first-hand experience of the standards required to become a technician. The manual includes:

- a list of key terms and a glossary to aid learner understanding
- a guide on best practice use of the manual while on-programme
- a guide on how learners should use reflective practice to make the most of their learning
- a series of practical work-based tasks so that learners can relate their learning to their own experiences and organisation.

Each task is split into three sections:

- Know it – questions covering the knowledge required to work competently.
- Show it – activities which allow apprentices to demonstrate their knowledge and skills by applying them to practical work situations.
- Live it – an opportunity for the apprentice to reflect on how the task went and what they could do to improve on anything that did not go so well.

Why choose SmartScreen?
