Post-CAG: resuming 'normal' exams and assessments

Questions we've been asked...

- Can we assess SLC remotely?
 - Is there any difference between reformed FS and legacy?
- Who can/can't be involved in invigilation?
 - Can employers invigilate?
 - Does the 'exceptions' process still apply?
- What's the situation with remote invigilation?

To note...

Results for centre assessment grades
now starting to be released
to the Walled Garden.

Must not be shared with learners until publication date, ie Friday 31 July.

Covid- returning to work
and staying safe.

Planning for 2020-21

Planning ahead.

We'd like your views and insights.

Support framework...

Networks

- Small group sessions (eg no more than 20).
- Always with a clear theme and focus,
- Emphasis on practitioners bringing and sharing ideas.

Recorded presentations

- Either video or slides with a voiceover.
- Information sharing (eg about particular City & Guilds products and services, or a specific initiative/development).

Live Q&A sessions

- A chance to ask questions, confirm understanding, myth-bust.
- Usually with a theme and focus – but wouldn't have to be.
- Should these have a regular timeslot?

TeachMeets

- Series of short presentations from practitioners.
- Usually an over-arching theme.
- All about sharing ideas.

Intro/update sessions

- Intended for new staff/centres (or new to City & Guilds).
- Intended to supplement recorded presentations, but in an environment where it's ok to ask 'daft questions'!

A podcast?

- Just an idea – but would you subscribe if we did?
- Format? Interviews, guests, discussion...?
- How often?
