Introduction

Explore qualifications and programmes that support your learners to build successful careers across essential trades like electrical, plumbing, heating, and beyond.

In the UK, the building services engineering (BSE) sector is a cornerstone of our daily lives, employing over 470,000 professionals across various disciplines. As the industry evolves to meet the challenges of the green agenda, there's an increasing demand for skilled workers in emerging fields such as EV charging, solar energy, and energy storage.

At City & Guilds, we pride ourselves on being the market leader in excellence for skills and training, offering a comprehensive range of qualifications and apprenticeships tailored to the sector. Our programmes cover essential trades like electrical, plumbing & heating, and gas, as well as cutting-edge renewable technologies.

With widening skills gaps throughout the industry, there's never been a better time to pursue a career in building services engineering.

Our qualifications and apprenticeships are developed in close collaboration with employers and industry experts to ensure they meet current industry standards and provide a gateway to successful careers.

With full-time programmes and specialised short courses ranging from levels 1-4, our portfolio caters to diverse career paths and skill levels. By choosing City & Guilds, you gain access to:

- A vast library of qualification materials and resources
- Support from our team of industry and technical experts
- Guidance on curriculum planning, delivery, funding updates, and quality assurance

Join us in shaping the future of building services engineering and become part of a highly skilled workforce ready to tackle tomorrow's challenges.

Building services engineering snapshot

We've been in the trades for generations, with a breadth of qualifications and apprenticeships available to give learners the perfect route into the industry, and opportunities to progress.

As a market leader in BSE, we pride ourselves on high quality our high-quality portfolio, and excellent support and service.

Apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are available for learners over 16 with no upper age limit. They are funded by the government or via an employer levy, which can be used to pay for training and assessment costs.

Qualifications

We offer a varied portfolio of qualifications in the key Building Service Engineering sub-sectors, with programmes designed to meet the needs of both aspiring and existing professionals.

Green technology qualifications

Our green technology qualifications help equip the workforce with the skills needed in a more sustainable world.

Continuing professional development (CPD)

Our range of CPD enables learners to upskill or reskill in specific areas that add value to their careers.

Functional Skills

Our Functional Skills qualifications provide learners with the essential skills to navigate real-life situations, support future employment opportunities and further their studies confidently and successfully.

Assured

Assured is our in-house training accreditation service, designed to support training success and achieving business goals.

Electrical

From basic wiring to advanced systems, our electrical qualifications and apprenticeships ensure learners meet industry standards and are prepared for the evolving demands of the electrical sector. Covering essential theory, practical skills and safety protocols across residential, commercial and industrial applications, our programmes provide a solid foundation for aspiring electricians or expand the skillsets of experienced professionals.

Our breadth of electrical qualifications offer progression and opportunities for individuals at different career stages. See our online career route maps to explore the various pathways for your learners.

Working in partnership with industry

We are committed to developing industry-relevant qualifications, so we collaborate with leading professional bodies, institutions, and employers to ensure our qualifications equip today's learners with the skills and expertise to succeed.

They include the Joint Industry Body (JIB), the Electrical Contractors Association (ECA), The Electrotechnical Skills Partnership (TESP), NET, The Chartered Institute of Plumbing and Heating Engineering (CIPHE), Air Conditioning & Refrigeration Industry Board (ACRIB), The Institute of Refrigeration (IOR), the Institution of Engineering & Technology (IET) and the Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS).

BSE qualifications for a greener future

The BSE workforce plays a crucial role in helping the UK achieve its sustainability goals, from installing renewable energy systems in homes and businesses to supporting the transition to electric vehicles. Renewable technology is key to the UK's ambitions for a greener future, and City & Guilds is supporting the demand for these evolving skills with a new suite of solar PV, electrical energy storage, retrofit, and EV charging qualifications, developed in close collaboration with the electrical industry to meet the latest professional standards.

More skills solutions for your learners

Support your learners at every stage of their journey with functional skills, employability skills, leadership qualifications and more.

Skills for Work and Life: Functional Skills

For skills that unlock potential, our flexible programmes create stepping stones to success.

City & Guilds Functional Skills qualifications for maths, English and digital are designed for learners at college, on adult learning programmes, and for those working towards apprenticeships. They provide learners with the essential skills to navigate real-life situations, support future employment opportunities, and further their studies confidently and successfully.

They are available across five levels (entry 1 to level 2) for maths and English and at two levels (entry 3 and level 1) for digital skills. We offer flexible assessment types to support various learning routes and progression pathways, as well as a range of digital resources to help learners succeed.

Assured – accredit your in-house training

We know that some organisations have specific training needs that cannot be met by existing qualifications. Our Assured service has been designed to evaluate and certify in-house training programmes against our Assured Benchmark Standards, confirming the quality of the processes and systems used to design, plan and deliver the training. Securing Assured recognition demonstrates the strength of your training both internally and externally, showing that you take your employees' development seriously and that you are ensuring your workforce has the skills that you need.

Digital credentials

As more and more of the hiring progress moves to an online-first model, having a digital way to help showcase knowledge and skills to potential employers can be a crucial tool to support career progression.

Digital credentials are a visual representation of an individual's skills that provide a convenient way to easily capture and share accomplishments and abilities online with professional networks and potential employers.

We offer digital credentials for the majority of our qualifications and programmes. They can be shared via email or social media and can provide a map of an individual's educational journey, giving your learners a competitive edge in the workplace.
