

Dear Emma,

The Federation of Holistic Therapists provides its support as a professional industry body within the beauty therapy and complementary healthcare sector, as we feel the following qualification is suitable for a young person studying between the ages of 16-19 and will give that young person an advantage when applying for a job.

We would like to support the following City and Guilds qualification:

Title: City and Guilds Level 3 Advanced Technical Diploma in Complementary Therapies (540)

The following practical skills and knowledge are included in this qualification and are essential for a young person when looking to be employed as a fully qualified Senior Complementary Therapist:

- Principles and practices for complementary therapies
- Business practice for complementary therapies
- Knowledge of anatomy, physiology and pathology for complementary therapies
- Provide body massage for complementary therapies
- Provide aromatherapy for complementary therapies
- Provide reflexology for complementary therapies

We feel that once the learner has achieved this qualification they would have an advantage when seeking employment in the position of a:

- Fully qualified Senior Complementary Therapist

We confirm that we consent to our company name (and logo) being made publicly available on the DfE and City and Guilds websites.

Yours sincerely,

Jennifer Wayte
President and Managing Director
