

Electrotechnical Experienced Worker Assessment & Learner Journey

Entry Application

Minimum 5 years experience working in the industry (not including time in full or part-time training), validated by the Skills Scan

Experienced Worker Qualification

Recognition of Prior Learning and Experience

- Recognised evidence of Performance → RPL against Level 3 Performance Units
- Where held, recognised Level 2 & Level 3 electrotechnical qualifications and/or evidence of CPD → RPL against Knowledge Requirements

Level 3 Underpinning Knowledge Units reflecting National Occupational Standards
+
Level 3 Performance Units aligned to current electrotechnical apprenticeship standard
+
BS7671 Wiring Regulations Unit (current edition)
+
Initial Verification Unit

End Point Assessment

New AM2E (mirrors AM2S); Achievement of the EWA qualification is a prerequisite

Achievement of AM2E meets ECS Gold Card qualification requirements (valid ECS HSE test also required)