QUALIFICATION AIM
The Cleaning and Support Services qualifications recognise the skills and knowledge required to clean effectively and safely in a broad range of situations, which include interiors/exterior, food, high risk areas and cleaning of soft furnishings and hard floors.

TheSe qualifications provide learners with recognition that they can do their job effectively and in accordance with National Occupational Standards.

QUALIFICATION LEVELS
Designed to improve the skills of those working in cleaning and support services, these qualifications allow learners to spring clean their CVs in order to achieve their career goals.

Introducing the fundamental principles of cleaning, level 1 provides skills applicable to a host of job roles, while the focus on enhanced cleaning and support services at level 2 allows individuals to demonstrate they have key knowledge of their role.

PROGRESSION ROUTES
Progression is available across award, certificate and diploma, as well as through level 1, 2 and 3 of the Cleaning Supervisions portfolio. Centres can offer the level 2 certificate as part of the apprenticeship framework for cleaning and environmental services.

Further training options include the Level 2 Certificate in Local Environmental Services (7729) or Level 3 Certificate in Facilities Management (7724).

PRODUCT INFORMATION

KEY FEATURES
Depending on the level and size of the qualification, learners take a mixture of mandatory and optional units.

Assessment is flexible to suit centre and learner needs, making the qualification accessible to a wide spectrum of individuals.

Multiple choice questions are available for centres to support practical assessments.

This suite is fully supported by a raft of materials, including a qualification handbook. A full colour logbook is available for the level 2 certificate.

The FREE hanbook provides centres with all the information needed to deliver this qualification, including centre requirements and detailed information about each unit.

KEY BENEFITS
The variety of units gives the qualifications relevancy across the profession and allows learners to focus on specialist areas of expertise, giving it wide appeal. The advantage of delivering optional units is that centres can offer individually tailored learning.

Learners taking the level 1 certificate have the opportunity to gain a unit at Level 2, within the optional group, making progression onto the level 2 qualification more accessible.

Assessment is flexible to suit centre and learner needs, making the qualification accessible to a wide spectrum of individuals.

Observation of tasks in the workplace allows assessors to determine practical skills and competency. Meanwhile, portfolios enable learners to collate the evidence produced through assessment in order to showcase their talents to prospective employers.

The FREE hanbook provides centres with all the information needed to deliver this qualification, including centre requirements and detailed information about each unit.

Centres also receive a copy of Focus, our informative monthly newsletter containing all the latest news and information relating to our exciting qualifications.
