Qualification aim	Qualification levels and definition	Progression routes
Following close collaboration with the Association of Medical Secretaries, Practice Managers, Administrators and Receptionists (AMSPAR), these qualifications were designed for those wanting to provide administrative or secretarial support within the healthcare sector. They equip learners with the knowledge required to assist a professional healthcare team, while allowing them to gain specialist skills in areas ranging from database research to legal and communications.	Those on the Level 3 qualifications will ideally have some administrative experience and may be looking to change careers. Learners will gain a more complex understanding of administrative and secretarial duties, providing them with the confidence and skills needed for progression.	On completion learners may choose to advance on to our Level 5 Certificate and Diploma in Primary Care and Health Management after being in employment or further training. Alternatively, learners have the option of taking one of our related qualifications in Business and Administration. The qualifications also act as a platform so learners can progress directly into employment. In addition, we also have a number of Higher Level qualifications offered through the Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM). www.il-m.com.
