What does this qualification cover?

The primary purpose of this qualification is to develop the knowledge and skills to prepare the learner to progress to the next level of learning within the field of legal studies and legal qualifications. The knowledge they will gain through specific content outlined below can also lead into employment within this specialist area.

The following three mandatory units that will be covered within this qualification are:

- The legal environment
- Principles of criminal law
- Principles of civil liability

Who could take this qualification?

This qualification is for learners who are looking to develop their basic knowledge and skills within the legal sector. There are no age restrictions for this qualification.

This certificate sized qualification allows learners to develop the core basic skills, using the three mandatory units, within a period of time that may be accommodated alongside other qualifications in a programme of study. This can then lead onto the diploma sized qualification for legal studies which offers a greater breadth of mandatory units and optional units that specifically support employability skills and learner engagement.

What could this qualification lead to?

This qualification can lead to the learner progressing onto the following qualifications:

- Level 2 Certificate for Legal Secretaries
- Level 2 Certificate in Legal Studies

Who supports this qualification?

This qualification is supported by BPP Training, Sheffield College, K College, Liverpool College and Pitman Training.
