

Declared Purpose:

The following purpose is for the Level 3 Diploma in Bricklaying 6705 (QAN no: 600/8083/8) the following qualification is a Technical Level qualification. The intention of the purpose is to explain to students, parents, employers, post 16 providers and higher education institutes where the qualification could lead. The qualification has appropriate content and assessment methods for 16-19 year olds.

This level 3 qualification is a technical vocational qualification which focus on the development of the underlying principles and practical skills required in the Bricklaying sector. It is designed to deliver a high level of occupational skills and provide a sound platform from which to progress onto a HE qualification or into employment. It has been designed to deliver a high level of occupational capability.

A learner studying this qualification will receive a broad background in understanding the electrical sector and the practical skills and knowledge required. It will provide the learner with an awareness of the range of jobs and work settings in the sector.

Enable a learner to make an informed assessment of their own aptitude for work in this sector and to make informed decisions about careers; returning to work, career development options or possible career change.

it will introduce the learner to the discipline of the working environment and to encourage mature attitudes to the community in general.

This information is found within the qualification handbook:

<http://www.cityandguilds.com/Courses-and-Qualifications/construction/construction/6705-bricklaying/level-3>