1 Introduction to the qualifications

This document contains the information that centres need to offer the qualifications listed in Appendix 1

The qualifications are offered in the following categories:

- Interiors
- 2D
- 3D
- Design
- Employability Skills
- Professional practice
- Balloon Artistry

1.1 Introduction to Creative Techniques

Welcome to Creative Techniques, a QCF accredited suite of creative qualifications

For many years City & Guilds creative qualifications has provided people around the globe with craft skills that form the basis of a cultural tradition, whilst promoting the highest level of innovation and design. This new qualification builds on the strength of previous City & Guilds design and craft qualifications, providing an extensive range of subjects from which learners can acquire practical skills and knowledge essential to work within the creative industries.

A fusion of applied skills and underpinning knowledge will equip learners with the ability to make informed decisions about design and creative processes in a contemporary context. Successful learners will produce unique and innovative work carried out to the highest levels of craftsmanship, backed with sound subject knowledge and developed research skills.

The inclusion of contextualised employability skills will allow learners to investigate industry and commerce whilst preparing them for future vocational opportunities such as starting their own business as a sole-practitioner or full-time employment within the creative industries.

A flexible qualification structure

Creative Techniques is unitised and offered at levels 1, 2 and 3. Therefore unlike previous City & Guilds qualifications an award, certificate and diploma are offered within each of the three levels.

Award

To achieve the award learners must complete one unit at any level from either the mandatory or optional craft list. Each single unit award provides a structured course for the learner with limited time available.

Example

- To achieve the level 1 Award in Creative Techniques (Interiors) learners must be enrolled on 7111-51 and successfully complete at least one unit within the Interiors craft pathway

Certificate

To achieve the certificate learners must complete four units – two mandatory design units and two units from the options in the selected craft pathway. The craft pathway units are determined by the tutor/assessor prior to enrolment

Example

- To achieve the level 2 Certificate in Creative Techniques (2D), learners must successfully complete four units. The two mandatory units – Design and Sampling-Design Ideas and two optional units from within the 2D craft pathway eg Life Drawing – Full Human Figure, Linear and Mixed Media – Black and White Studies

Diploma

A diploma is designed to be taken as a full-time course. To achieve the diploma learners must complete fifteen units – all seven mandatory and eight from the optional units in the selected craft pathway.

Guided learning hours (GLH)

Each unit at level 1 and 2 requires 30 GLH. Level 3 mandatory units require 30 GLH each whilst the craft pathway units are 60 GLH. This reflects the level of complexity and innovation required.

The GLH for each route are as follows:

- All awards at level 1 and 2 are 30 GLH
- Mandatory unit awards at level 3 are 30 GLH
- Craft Pathway unit awards at level 3 are 60GLH
- All certificates at level 1 and 2 are 120 GLH
- Level 3 craft pathway certificate is 180 GLH
- Diploma at level 1 and 2 are 450 GLH
- Diploma at level 3 is 690 GLH

Centres are free to organise the pattern of delivery of the GLH as they require.

Unit information

Units are grouped into mandatory and optional lists.

Mandatory units are divided into three areas at levels 1, 2 and 3

Design consists of two units –

- Design
- Sampling

Employability skills consists of four units –

- Producing Documents
- Creating Promotional Materials
- Business Knowledge – Creative Business
- Business Skills

Professional Practice consists of one unit –

- Professional Practice Associated with the Creative Industries

Optional units are subject specialisms which are divided into three Craft Pathways. Centres will decide which units to offer as appropriate to their needs.

Interiors contain a number of qualifications covering decorative paint effects, the application of metal leaf and interior décor.

2D covers graphic skills with subjects like life drawing, drawing and painting, printmaking, mixed media, and creative computing.

3D units include qualifications in jewellery, glass and ceramics.

1.2 Opportunities for progression

Candidates may progress to different levels within Creative Techniques, eg; from an Award to a Certificate, from a Certificate to Diploma. On completion of these qualifications candidates may progress into employment or onto:

- City & Guilds HLQ in Higher Professional Diploma in Creative Arts.

2 Centre requirements

This section outlines the approval processes for Centres to offer these qualifications and any resources that Centres will need in place to offer the qualifications including qualification-specific requirements for Centre staff.

Centres not yet approved by City & Guilds

To offer these qualifications, new centres will need to gain both centre and qualification approval. Please refer to Appendix 2 for further information.

Existing City & Guilds centres

To offer these qualifications centres already approved to deliver City & Guilds qualifications will need to gain qualification approval. Please refer to Appendix 2 for further information.

Centres already offering City & Guilds qualifications in this subject area

Centres approved to offer the Design and Craft qualifications may apply for approval for the new Creative Techniques suite using the fast track approval form, available from the City & Guilds website.

Centres may apply to offer the new qualifications using the fast track form

- providing there have been no changes to the way the qualifications are delivered, and
- if they meet all of the approval criteria specified in the fast track form guidance notes.

Fast track approval is available for 12 months from the launch of the qualification. After this time, the qualification is subject to the standard Qualification Approval Process. It is the centre's responsibility to check that fast track approval is still current at the time of application.

2.1 Resource requirements

Human resources

To meet the quality assurance criteria for these qualifications, the centre must ensure that the following internal roles are undertaken:

- quality assurance co-ordinator
- tutor/assessor
- internal verifier.

Staff delivering the qualifications

All new teachers delivering publicly funded qualifications in the learning and skills sector (all post 16 education – including FE, adult and community learning, work-based learning, offender education) in England are now required to take qualifications which form part of the Qualified Teacher – Learning and Skills (QTLS) framework. City & Guilds offers a range of qualifications within the QTLS framework. Details are available on the QTLS pages of www.cityandguilds.com.

Staff delivering these qualifications must also be able to demonstrate that they meet the following occupational expertise requirements.

- be technically competent in the area for which they are delivering training and/ or have experience of providing training. This knowledge must be at least to the same level as the training being delivered.
- have recent relevant experience in the specific area they will be assessing.

Centre staff may undertake more than one role eg tutor and assessor or internal verifier, but must never internally verify their own assessments.

Tutor/Assessors must

- be occupationally knowledgeable in the area for which they are delivering training. This knowledge must be at least to the same level as the training being delivered.
- have credible experience of providing training.

Internal verifiers

While the Assessor/Verifier (A/V) units are valued as qualifications for centre staff, they are not currently a requirement for the qualifications.

Continuing professional development (CPD)

Centres are expected to support their staff in ensuring that their knowledge of the occupational area and of best practice in delivery, mentoring, training, assessment and verification remains current, and takes account of any national or legislative developments.

2.2 Candidate entry requirements

Learner entry requirements

Learners should not be entered for a qualification of the same type, content and level as that of a qualification they already hold.

There are no formal entry requirements for learners undertaking these qualifications. However, centres must ensure that learners have the potential and opportunity to successfully gain the qualifications.

Please see section 6 of this document, Course design and delivery, which offers guidance on initial assessment.

Age restrictions

The level 3 qualifications are not approved for use by learners under the age of 16, and City & Guilds cannot accept any registrations for learners in this age group.

Progression

On completion of these qualifications learners may progress into employment or to the following City & Guilds qualifications:

- Level 1, 2 and 3 Awards, Certificates and Diplomas in Creative Techniques
- Level 1, 2 and 3 City & Guilds / AQA 14-19 Creative and Media Diplomas
- City & Guilds HLQ in Creative Arts.

Europass Certificate Supplement

A Europass Certificate Supplement is available for Creative Techniques.

The Certificate Supplement is part of a European initiative called Europass which aims at facilitating mobility by making it easier to understand skills and qualifications, especially outside the issuing country.

The Certificate Supplement can be used to help learners find a job, get experience or enrol in an education or training programme abroad. It may also assist employers to identify the best applicant to work for their organisation.

The Certificate Supplement sits alongside the official certificate and is supplied by the awarding body which develops the qualification.

For more information on Europass and to download the Certificate Supplement for free, please visit www.cityandguilds.com/europass.

3 Rules of combination

Rules of combination are used to define the structure of qualifications. The rules of combination specify the credits which must be achieved through a particular combination of units to gain a full qualification.

This section provides information about the full qualifications which may be awarded to learners successfully completing the required combinations of units and/or credits as shown in the tables below:

5 Assessment

5.1 Summary of assessment methods

In order to successfully achieve a Creative Techniques unit which entitles the learner to the qualification, the following is required:

- Completion of the assessment outlined in the unit aim of each unit and all of its assessment criteria
- There are no additional assignments aside from the assessments contained within the units.

Time constraints

All assignments must be completed and assessed within the learner's period of registration. Centres should advise learners of any internal timescales for the completion and marking of individual assignments.

Grading and marking

Assessments will be internally graded pass, merit or distinction.

What the results mean:

- Pass: understanding achieved only with substantial guidance, adequate but little serious work outside of course, little evidence of original thought
- Merit: good grasp of unit requirements, ability to develop ideas in an original way, able to progress own work, and work is well presented, organised and relevant to the unit
- Distinction: minimal assistance required in understanding, developing and completing high standard work, excellent body of work, innovative and well presented
- Fail: no understanding of unit requirements, even with assistance, insufficient work or standard of work
- Resubmission: normally learners may resubmit their work once if tasks were failed on the first submission. However, should centres think that a further assessment opportunity would result in a positive outcome for the learner; the centre should advise and seek approval from their external verifier.

Overall grading

Units will be graded individually while certificates and diplomas receive an overall result of pass, merit or distinction. A point value system using simple addition will be used to determine the overall result however in order to achieve any qualification the learner must successfully complete all units. This system remains the same throughout levels 1, 2 and 3.

Individual unit point values

Mandatory units	Point value
Fail	0
Pass	1
Merit	2
Distinction	3

Optional units	Point value
Fail	0
Pass	2
Merit	4
Distinction	6

Overall grading using point values

Certificate – Craft pathway	Points
Pass	6 – 10
Merit	11 – 15
Distinction	16 – 18

Example

- The learner achieves one merit (2 points values) and one pass (1 point value) for the mandatory units. For the optional units one pass (2 point values) and one distinction (6 point values) are achieved. The total point value is 11 therefore the overall result is a merit

Diplomas	Points
Pass	23 – 34
Merit	35 – 57
Distinction	58 – 69

Example

- The learner achieves one distinction (3 point values) and six merits (2 point values each) for the mandatory units. For the optional units two merits (4 point values each) and six distinctions (6 point values each) are achieved. The total point value is 59 therefore the overall result is a distinction

Marking guide

A detailed marking guide for determining grades is available on the website. It is for use only when learners have satisfactorily completed all of the assessment criteria.

Point values and QCF credit values

There is no relationship between point value system used to determine grades and QCF credit values. When a QCF unit is achieved the full credit value is awarded regardless of the Creative Techniques grade and point value.

Accreditation of prior learning and experience (APEL)

Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL) and Accreditation of Prior Experience and Learning (APEL) recognise the contribution a person's previous experience could contribute to a qualification.

Recording requirements

Recording forms are provided for centre use and should be photocopied as required for this Vocationally Related Qualification.

5.2 Recording forms

Learners and centres may decide to use a paper-based or electronic method of recording evidence.

City & Guilds has developed a set of recording forms specifically for these qualifications; Recording forms for Creative Techniques. These are available from the City & Guilds website.

Although it is expected that new centres will use these forms, centres may devise or customise alternative forms, which must be approved for use by the external verifier, before they are used by learners and assessors at the centre.

6 Course design and delivery

6.1 Initial assessment and induction

Centres will need to make an initial assessment of each learner prior to the start of their programme to ensure they are entered for an appropriate type and level of qualification.

Further guidance about initial assessment and induction, as well as a learning contract that centres may use, are available in the Centre resource packet.

6 Course design and delivery

6.2 Recommended delivery strategies

Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Centres may design course programmes of study in any way that:

- best meets the needs and capabilities of their learners
- which satisfies the requirements of the qualification.

In particular, staff should consider the skills and knowledge related to the national occupational standards.
