GI9 customer service improvements

Hairdressing can be a changeable business – trying to maintain a solid client base and project a professional salon image is not always easy. Your client needs to feel valued to reward you with their loyalty. Salons are becoming more inspirational when implementing client service ideas, with greater impact proving to be more successful. Within this unit, you will learn how to gain and evaluate feedback from clients on services and products and develop ideas to boost client services. You will work as part of a team supporting others when implementing improvements your salon has introduced, to ensure that a visit to your salon is always a fantastic experience. This will maximise your business's potential, and that of the salon.

Unit G19 (City & Guilds Unit 047)

Support customer service improvements Optional

Hair by Sophia Hilton

4 Level 3 NVQ/SVQ Hairdressing

This unit has three outcomes.

Outcome 1

Use feedback to identify potential client service improvements

Outcome 2

Produce a range of creative images

Outcome 3

Evaluate your results against the design plan objectives

Evidence requirements

To achieve this unit you must practically demonstrate in your everyday work that you have met the standards for supporting client service improvements. The standards cover things that you must do (performance criteria), and things that you must know.

What you must do

Your assessor will observe your performance on at least two occasions. Your evidence should be collected when carrying out a real job, whether paid or voluntary, and when dealing with real clients, whether internal or external to the salon. However, for this unit, evidence collected in a realistic working environment or a work placement is permissible. Simulation is not allowed for any performance evidence with this unit.

You may collect the evidence for the unit through work in a private sector salon, a not-for-profit salon or a public services salon.

You must provide evidence that shows you have done this over a sufficient period of time with different clients on different occasions for your assessor to be confident that you are competent.

Hints and tips

Be a good listener; take on board what your client is saying to you, and sometimes what they're not saying!

What you must cover

You will see key words in bold on the 'What you must do' list. For each of these, there is a range of things that you must cover. You must show that you have:

Improved client service in the following ways:

through your own efforts

by working with others

Been actively involved in at least two of the following changes:

linking client feedback with the reasons for the change

implementing the change

gathering client reactions to the change

Showed the following effects of change:

the change has improved client service

your clients have reacted to the change

What you must know

You will be assessed on your knowledge of the following:

Client feedback

Supporting change

This will be completed through written and oral questioning by your assessor. For details of what you must know, see page 11.

Useful words

Some terms that you will come across in this unit are explained below.

Client rights The client's legal rights to be protected as a consumer or purchaser of goods and services within your salon. You/your salon must comply with them.

Client services The services offered to clients for a business, for example hairdressing salons for hairdressing services and retail products.

Communication The exchange of ideas and information between groups or individual people to achieve a mutual understanding.

Confidential information Information about the client or business that you should not divulge.

Contractual agreement A verbal or written agreement undertaken by you/the salon and the client to carry out the agreed standard of service, providing the benefits discussed at the stated price.

Data Protection Act Legislation in place to protect personal information from misuse. For example, clients have the right to see the information that you have on your system about them, and to correct anything that they feel is inaccurate.

Equal opportunities By law, nobody should be discriminated against on the grounds of their age, race, gender or disability. There is legislation to enforce this, and you can see details at various websites, including www.eoc.org.uk.

Evaluation A method of reviewing the results of a decision, solution, process or action, for example to look at a service offered in the salon to see if timings could be improved.

Legislation Laws which must be adhered to, such as health and safety legislation.

Questionnaire A method of collecting feedback from clients to be used for evaluation purposes.
