

Ben Towers
Portfolio Manager
City & Guilds London

Dear Ben

I would like to provide my support as an employer within the health sector and I agree that the following qualifications:

- meet the needs of the NHS / Health Sector
- would give a learner the relevant skills to gain employment
- develop and confirm specialist knowledge and skills which are relevant to the sector/occupation
- are suitable for a young person between the ages of 16-19 studying an apprenticeship in the Health Sector
- will give the young person an advantage when applying for a substantive job or progressing into higher education.
- are suitable for young people in work and who want to progress their careers
