- K9. How to identify and report equipment that needs repair or servicing
- K10. Basic legal requirements about the use of cleaning equipment and materials

Unit 140 Help to clean and maintain furnished areas (1HK4)

Unit 140 (1HK4.2) Clean floors and floor coverings

What you have to do

What you have to know

To meet the national standard you must:

6. Prepare the work area for cleaning
7. Check and prepare cleaning equipment and materials in line with the manufacturers' instructions before you use it
8. Clean floors and floor coverings safely and systematically
9. Make sure that finished floors and floor coverings are dry and free from dust, dirt, debris and removable marks
10. Get rid of waste and dirty water correctly and safely
11. Clean and store cleaning equipment and materials correctly after use

- K11. What dangers are caused by water coming into contact with electricity supplies or batteries when cleaning floors and floor coverings
- K12. What precautions you should take to avoid electrocution, when cleaning floors and floor coverings
- K13. Why you should follow manufacturers' instructions when using cleaning equipment and materials to clean floors and floor coverings
- K14. How to avoid causing slip hazards when cleaning floors and floor coverings
- K15. How to dispose of used cleaning materials safely and correctly

What you must cover:

Preparation of work area

- a) use of protective clothing
- b) put up hazard warning signs
- c) protect surrounding areas

Surfaces, furnishings, fixtures and fittings

- a) wood
- b) plastic / vinyl / linoleum
- c) ceramic / stone / marble
- d) metal
- e) painted surfaces
- f) fabric

Equipment and materials

- a) manual equipment
- b) powered equipment
- c) cleaning chemical

Unit 140

Help to clean and maintain furnished areas (1HK4)

Unit 140 (1HK4.3) Service furnished areas

What you have to do

What you have to know

To meet the national standard you must:

12. Check that heating, lighting and ventilation systems are set correctly
13. Make sure that furnished areas are free from unpleasant smells
14. Empty waste bins and leave them clean and ready for use
15. Get waste ready for collection, sorting it if asked to

- K16. Why it is important to maintain the internal environment
- K17. Why waste should be handled and disposed of correctly
- K18. What the different ways of dealing with waste are, and why it is important to use the appropriate one
- K19. Why it is important to correctly identify waste, and how you can identify hazardous waste

What you must cover:

Waste

- a) hazardous
- b) non-hazardous

Collection methods

- a) external collection
- b) incineration/compression
- c) recycling

What is this unit about?

This unit is about packaging food for delivery, including hot and all other food kept at room temperature. It also covers clearly and accurately labelling the packs, as well as what quality aspects to look for in both food and the packs

Unit 141 (1P&C1) Package food for delivery

What you have to do

To meet the national standard you must:

1. Make sure all food has been prepared correctly
2. Pack and seal food to organisational and legal requirements
3. Accurately and clearly label all packed food
4. Load packed food into the correct containers ready for collection
5. Clean packaging areas and equipment to organisational and legal standards after use

What you must cover:

Food

- a) Hot food
- b) Cold food

What you have to know

- K1. Why it is important to ensure food is prepared to the organisational standards for appearance and temperature before packing
- K2. What quality points to look for in prepared meals
- K3. How and why dishes should be correctly and clearly labelled
- K4. Why it is important to keep packing areas and equipment hygienic when packing food for delivery
- K5. Why time and temperature are important when packing food for delivery
- K6. What the main contamination threats are when packing food for delivery
- K7. Why it is important to ensure that packaging materials are not damaged before packing food
- K8. What problems can commonly occur with the packing of food, and how to identify them
- K9. What problems can commonly occur with the quality of food, and how to identify them

Unit 142

Solve business problems (1FOH10)

What is this unit about?

This unit is about contributing towards identifying and solving business problems.

You will use the following specific skills:

- Communicating
- Organising
- Planning
- Problem solving
- Working with others

This unit is Unit BAG125 in the Council for Administration suite of standards.

What you have to doWhat you have to know

The meet the national standard you must:

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Check understanding of the business problem | K1. How to identify a business problem |
| 2. Discuss the business problem with others | K2. Different ways to solve business problems |
| 3. Seek advice on how to deal with the business problem | K3. Different ways of recognising when a business problem has been solved |
| 4. Agree how to recognise when the business problem has been solved | K4. Reasons for using support and feedback from others |
| 5. Use support and feedback from others to help solve the business problem | |

What is this unit about?

This unit is about preparing, cooking and finishing basic egg dishes, for example:

- Scrambled egg
- Poached eggs
- Omelettes
- Boiled eggs
- Sweet and savoury egg dishes

What you have to do

To meet the national standard you must:

1. Check the eggs and other ingredients meet dish requirements
2. Choose and use tools and equipment correctly
3. Prepare and cook the eggs and other ingredients to meet dish requirements
4. Make sure the egg dish has the correct colour, texture and quantity
5. Present and finish the egg dish to meet requirements
6. Make sure the egg dish is at the correct temperature for holding and serving
7. Safely store any cooked egg dishes not for immediate use

What you must cover:

Eggs

- a) Fresh Egg
- b) Pasteurised egg

Preparation and Cooking methods

- a) Boiling
- b) Whisking
- c) Frying/griddling
- d) Poaching
- e) Baking
- f) Scrambling
- g) Bain marie

What you have to know

- K1. How to check the eggs and other ingredients meet dish requirements
- K2. What you should do if there are any problems with the eggs and other ingredients
- K3. Why time and temperature are important when cooking and finishing basic egg dishes
- K4. The correct tools and equipment used for the relevant preparation and cooking methods
- K5. How to carry out the relevant preparation and cooking methods
- K6. Why it is important to use the correct tools, equipment and techniques
- K7. How to identify when egg dishes have the correct colour, texture and quantity
- K8. How to finish basic egg dishes
- K9. The correct temperatures for holding and serving egg dishes
- K10. How to safely store cooked egg dishes
- K11. Healthy eating options when making egg dishes

What is this unit about?

This unit is about preparing finished dishes and meals for distribution to wards and patients. It covers the activities associated with protecting, covering and labelling of foods and preparing the trolley and containers used to transport them.

The typical day-to-day activities you might carry out for this unit include:

- Preparing trolleys and containers so that they are ready to hold food
- Covering and portioning food so that its quality is maintained
- Correctly labelling food and in particular highlighting those dishes/meals suited to specific dietary requirements or individuals needs

What you have to do

To meet the national standard you must:

1. Prepare trolleys and containers ensuring that they are clean and suitable for holding food
2. Ensure that the temperature of the trolley and containers is at the required level to protect the safety of the food
3. Check the required quantity and range of food required against order information provided
4. Portion food using approved methods to meet order requirements and the nutritional requirements of individuals
5. Cover food using appropriate materials in a manner that maintains the quality and safety of the food
6. Label food items according to organisational procedures highlighting items that are designated for patients with special dietary requirements
7. Load the trolleys and containers in a manner which ensures that the quality and safety of the food is protected
8. Transport the food in a manner which ensures that the presentation standards of the food are met

What you have to know

- K1. Equipment and different systems that can be used to transfer food within the operation
- K2. Key food safety and health and safety considerations that need to be monitored to protect the safety of food.
- K3. Temperatures at which it is safe to hold food
- K4. Maximum times that food can be safely held at
- K5. Organisational procedures for labelling food
- K6. Organisational procedures for identifying ward and patient needs

Unit 145

Prepare meals to meet relevant nutritional standards set for school meals (1PR26)

What is this unit about?

This unit is about producing dishes which meet the relevant nutritional standards and specifications set for school meals services. The skills described highlight the need to be aware of the requirements needed to meet the relevant nutritional standards.

What you have to do

To meet the national standard you must:

1. Liaise with colleagues and clients to identify the relevant nutritional standards and requirements
2. Prepare and cook menu items which fulfil the nutritional standards and the organisational standards set
3. Work in a manner that maximises the nutritional value of the food
4. Ensure that the preparation and cooking areas and equipment are safe, hygienic, ready for use and free from contaminating substances
5. Finish and present dish to required quality standards
6. Report any problems with meeting the nutritional standards to the appropriate person
7. Conduct work in line with relevant workplace procedures and current legal and regulatory requirements relating to safe and hygienic practices

What you have to know

- K1. The relevant nutritional standards used within school meals contexts
- K2. What the main nutrient groups are
- K3. What quantity of nutrients are typically needed to maintain a good dietary balance
- K4. What food preparation and cooking methods can affect the nutritional content of foods
- K5. The importance of knowing calorific values per portion
- K6. What quantity of nutrients are typically needed to maintain a good dietary balance
- K7. The range of different special dietary requirements that may be encountered and the impact that they have upon the production of food
- K8. The differences between dietary, religious and cultural requirements and how these are accounted for within the organisation
- K9. The consequences of not providing food that meets the nutritional standards
- K10. Where to obtain information on different dietary requirements
- K11. What safe working practices should be followed when preparing and cooking dishes to meet special dietary requirements

Unit 146

Present menu items according to a defined brand standard (1PR28)

What is this unit about?

This unit is about providing a consistent quality of menu items. This unit reflects the need to ensure that menu items are presented in such a way that they reflect the marketing and promotional styles used by the organisation.

What you have to do

To meet the national standard you must:

1. Examine brand standard literature and material to ensure that you are familiar with the standard required for each menu item
2. Collect and assemble the relevant ingredients required for the dish
3. Prepare dish whilst ensuring that the cooking methods and ingredients used are those specified to be used within the relevant brand standard
4. Collect relevant crockery and dishes which are designated as being required according to the brand standard
5. Assemble prepared food items on plates and dishes in a manner which accurately reflects the presentation style and portion sizes set out within the relevant brand standard
6. Make reference to the brand standard to check that the dish has been prepared to the correct standard
7. Where necessary, adjust the presentation of the dish to ensure that the brand standard is accurately reflected
8. Present dish for service together with the specified accompaniments

What you have to know

- K1. What a brand standard is
- K2. Why organisations use brand standards
- K3. What the implications are of organisations not adhering to brand standards
- K4. Where information regarding brand standards can be obtained and referred to
- K5. What the relevant brand standards are to your area of work
- K6. How menu items should be prepared to ensure that brand standards are maintained
- K7. How brand standards are used to ensure portion control
- K8. Why portion control is important to the organisation
- K9. What the relevant course of action is if insufficient ingredients are available to achieve the required brand standard

Appendix 1 Course design and delivery

Initial assessment and induction

Centres will need to make an initial assessment of each candidate prior to the start of their programme to ensure they are entered for an appropriate type and level of qualification.

The initial assessment should identify:

- any specific training needs the candidate has, and the support and guidance they may require when working towards their qualification. This is sometimes referred to as diagnostic testing.
- any units the candidate has already completed, or credit they have accumulated which is relevant to the qualification they are about to begin.

City & Guilds recommends that centres provide an induction programme to ensure the candidate fully understands the requirements of the qualification[s] they will work towards, their responsibilities as a candidate, and the responsibilities of the centre. It may be helpful to record the information on a learning contract.

Further guidance about initial assessment and induction, as well as a learning contract that centres may use, are available on the City & Guilds website.

Recommended delivery strategies

Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Centres may design course programmes of study in any way which:

- best meets the needs and capabilities of their candidates
- satisfies the requirements of the qualification

City & Guilds recommends that centres address the wider curriculum, where appropriate, when designing and delivering the course. Centres should also consider links to the National Occupational Standards, Functional/Core Skills and other related qualifications.

Centres may wish to include topics as part of the course programme which will not be assessed through the qualifications.

Appendix 2 Assessment

Recording forms

Candidates and centres may decide to use a paper-based or electronic method of recording evidence.

City & Guilds endorses several ePortfolio systems. Further details are available at: www.cityandguilds.com/eportfolios.

City & Guilds has developed a set of Recording forms including examples of completed forms, for new and existing centres to use as appropriate.

Recording forms are available on the City & Guilds website. They can also be purchased via the Walled Garden.

Although it is expected that new centres will use these forms, centres may devise or customise alternative forms, which must be approved for use by the external verifier, before they are used by candidates and assessors at the centre.

Amendable (MS Word) versions of the forms can be requested by email from catering@cityandguilds.com

People 1st Assessment Strategy Guidance

There are four components to the sector assessment strategy which set out requirements and guidance relating to:

1. external quality control
2. assessment principles
3. occupational expertise of assessors and verifiers
4. continuous professional development

The strategy should be used alongside the NVQ/SVQ assessment and quality assurance guidance of the regulatory authorities. Further information about NVQs/SVQs can be found at www.people1st.co.uk. Feedback or comments on the sector assessment strategy can be emailed to qualifications@people1st.co.uk.

Assessment Principles

People 1st advocate the integration of national occupational standards within employers' organisations in order to achieve a national level of competence across the sector's labour market. As such assessment of the sector's NVQs/SVQs will, ideally, take place within the workplace and assessment should, where possible, be conducted by the candidate's supervisors and/or line managers. People1st recognise, however, that is not always feasible for candidates to be assessed in the workplace and as such it permits the use of assessment within Realistic Working Environments (RWE). Additionally, where sector employers do not have the infrastructure to manage assessment independently, it values the role of the peripatetic assessors to support the assessment process.

Within these parameter, People1st expects that:

- the majority of assessment of the sector's NVQs/SVQs will be based on performance evidence, ie direct observation, outputs of work and witness testimony within the workplace or an RWE approved by an awarding organisation.
- opportunities to ascertain candidate's accreditation of prior learning is maximised by early contact between the assessor and candidate and during initial assessment / induction period.

Witness Testimony

People 1st recognise the use of witness testimony and expert witness testimony as appropriate methods for assessors to collect evidence on candidate's performance.

Witness testimonies can be obtained from people that are occupationally competent and whom may be familiar with the national occupational standards, such as the candidate's line manager. They may also be obtained from people who are not occupationally competent and do not have a knowledge of the national occupational standards such as other people within the candidate's workplace, customers and suppliers. The assessor must judge the validity of the witness testimony and these may vary depending on the source. Witness testimonies can only support the assessment process and may remove or reduce the need to collect supplementary evidence, however, the awarding organisation's minimum observations requirements must be met.

Expert witnesses may be used where additional support in relation to the assessment of technical competence is required. Expert witnesses may be:

- other approved assessors that are recognised to assess the relevant national occupational standards, or
- line managers, other managers or experienced colleagues that are not approved assessors, but who the awarding body agrees have current occupational competence, knowledge and expertise to make a judgement on a candidate's competence.

Expert witnesses must be able to demonstrate through relevant qualifications, practical experience and knowledge that they are qualified to provide an expert opinion on a candidate's performance in relation to the unit being assessed. People1st believe that it is unlikely for an expert witness to be fully expert within any of the sector's occupational areas in less than twelve months to two years. The final judgement on the validity of the expert witness testimony rests with the assessor and such testimonies may only be used in line with awarding organisation's requirements.

Professional Discussion

Professional discussion is encouraged as a supplementary form of evidence to confirm a candidate's competence. Such discussions should not be based on a prescribed list of questions but be a structured discussion which enables the assessor to gather relevant evidence to ensure the candidate has a firm understanding of the standard being assessed.

Simulation

Simulation can only be used to assess candidates for the sector's NVQs/SVQs where the opportunity to assess naturally occurring evidence is unlikely or not possible, for example assessment relating to health and safety, fire and emergency procedures. It should not include routine activities that must be covered by performance evidence.

There are no People1st units that can be solely achieved by simulation. In the case of imported units, where simulation is acceptable in the evidence requirements, it should only be used when performance evidence is unlikely to be generated through normal working practices.

Realistic Working Environment

Assessment of the sector’s NVQs/SVQs should ideally be carried out within the workplace, however, where this is not possible candidates can be assessed within an approved Realistic Working Environment (RWE) that replicates a real work setting. The criteria for RWE, currently operated in the sector can be found at Annex B.

Continuous Professional Development

To maintain high standards of quality and standardisation within assessment, and achieve best practice, People1st require all external verifiers, internal verifiers and assessors to maintain a record of their continuous professional development – see guidance at Annex E.

Annex A - Units in the Hospitality, Leisure, Travel and Tourism NVQ/SVQ frameworks that permit simulation

Unit Number	Unit Title	SVQs that the unit is used in
1GEN1	Maintain a safe, hygienic and secure working environment	Level 1 and 2 SVQ in Hospitality and Catering

Annex B - Criteria for Hospitality NVQ/SVQ Assessment in a Realistic Working Environment

It is essential for organisations operating a Realistic Working Environment (RWE) to ensure it reflects current and real work settings. By doing so, sector employers can be confident that competence achieved in an RWE will be continued into employment. RWEs can offer many opportunities to employers and individuals that have limited access to assessment. The number of hours candidate work and their input is not prescribed, as it is acknowledged that RWEs cannot operate without some flexibility. However, centres must provide evidence that the following criteria are being met as well as fulfilling the awarding organisation’s criteria for this purpose.

1	The work situation being represented is relevant to the NVQ(s)/SVQ(s) being assessed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The type of work situation being represented mirrors the relevant setting eg quick service takeaway, restaurant, brassiere, café/snack bar, cafeteria, housekeeping department, front office, reception or reservations. • Appropriate industrial equipment, furnishings and resources (eg ingredients and technology) that replicate the work situation are used, ensuring that assessment requirements can be covered. • Industry trends are considered in the product and service offer.
2	The candidate’s work activities reflect those found in the situation being represented	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Candidates operate in a professional capacity with corresponding job schedules and/or descriptions. • Candidates are clear on their work activities and responsibilities.
3	The RWE is operated in	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customers are not prompted to behave in a particular the same manner to as a real work situation	manner. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Customer feedback received is maintained and acted upon.

4	The RWE is under pinned by commercial principles and responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Organisational charts indicate the anticipated job roles in the RWE and their hierarchical structure taking into account supervisory requirements. There is evidence of business planning, for example product/service plans, staffing/rotas, costing, promotions. Candidates are encouraged to carry out their function in line with business expectations, eg within timescales and budget, minimizing wastage. Legislative regulations are adhered to eg food safety, health and safety, equal opportunities, trade description. Consumer information is provided on products and services eg allergy advice on food products.

Annex C - Occupational Expertise of Assessors and Verifiers

The requirements set out below relates to all assessors and verifiers. The only exception relates to in-house employees and managers that are not required to achieve the regulatory approved assessor and verified units based on an arrangement as referred to in this assessment strategy.

✓ = mandatory

Assessors and Internal Verifiers must:	Assessor	Internal Verifier
Have a good knowledge and understanding of the national occupational standard and NVQ/SVQ that is being assessed or verified.	✓	✓
D34 or V1 – In the case that the IV is working towards their V1 unit, a representative sample of verification decisions, as agreed with the awarding body, must be counter-signed by a colleague who has achieved either the D34 or V1 unit. This colleague must have the same occupational expertise.		✓
D32/D33 or A1/A2 – In the case that the assessor is working towards the A1/A2 units, a representative sample of assessment decisions, as agreed with the awarding body, must be counter-signed by a colleague who has achieved either the D32/D33 or A1/A2 units. This colleague must have the same occupational expertise.	✓
Have relevant occupational expertise and knowledge, at the appropriate level of the occupational area(s) they are assessing and verifying, which has been gained through 'hands on' experience in the industry.	✓	✓
Adhere to the awarding body's assessment requirements and practise standardised assessment principles	✓	✓
Adhere to the awarding organisation's assessment requirements and practise standardised assessment principles	✓	✓
Have sufficient resources to carry out the role	✓	✓ of assessor or verifier, ie time and budget

Have supervisory/management, interpersonal and investigative skills, including the ability to analyse information, hold meetings, guide, advise, plan and make recommendations at all levels, taking into account the nature and size of the organisation in which assessment is taking place. High standards of administration and record keeping are also essential.		✓
Hold qualifications, or have undertaken training, that has legislative relevance to the NVQ/SVQ being assessed (See Annex E).	✓	Good practice
Update their occupational expertise and industry knowledge in the areas being assessed and verified through planned Continuous Professional Development (see Annex F).	✓	✓

Annex D - Qualifications and Training Relevant to Assessors and Verifiers

The following sets out areas in which assessors, verifiers and external verifiers should either received training or achieve qualifications. People1st is not stipulating that assessors, verifiers or external verifiers must undertake and achieve specific qualifications, there is the option to either undertake appropriate training or an accredited qualification.

✓= mandatory

Qualification / Training	NVQ/SVQ	A	IV
Health and Safety	All sector NVQs/SVQs	✓	Good Practice
Food Safety	Food Processing and Cooking	✓	Good Practice
	Multi-Skilled Hospitality Services	✓
	Professional Cookery	✓
	Food and Drink Service	✓
	Hospitality Supervision and Leadership (with food and drink units)	✓
Licensing	Food and Drink Service	✓	Good Practice
	Hospitality Supervision (with food and drink units)

Note:

The above states areas of training / qualifications needed for specific N/SVQs. People1st is not stating ‘which’ qualification assessors and verifiers should take, only the area in which they should be trained / qualified in.

Annex E Continuous Professional Development for Assessors and Verifiers

It is necessary for assessors and verifiers to maintain a record of evidence of their continuous professional development (CPD). This is necessary to maintain currency of skills and understanding of the occupational area(s) being assessed, and can be achieved in a variety of ways. It should be a planned process, reviewed on an annual basis, for example as part of an individual's performance review.

Assessors and verifiers should select CPD methods that are appropriate to meeting their development needs. The following provides an example of a variety of methods that can be utilised for CPD purposes.

Updating occupational expertise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Internal and external work placements • Work experience and shadowing (eg within associated departments) • External visits to other organisations • Updated and new training and qualifications (www.uksp.co.uk) • Training sessions to update skills • Visits to educational establishments • Trade fairs
Keeping up to date with sector developments and new legislation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relevant sector websites • Membership of professional bodies • Papers and documents on legislative change • Networking events • Seminars, conferences, workshops, membership of committees / working parties (e.g. People1st events) • Staff development days
Standardising and best practice in assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regular standardisation meetings with colleagues • Sharing best practice through internal meetings, news letters, email circulars • Comparison of assessment and verification in other sectors • Attending awarding body meetings / seminars

Downloadable guidance on CPD can be found at www.ifl.ac.uk

SVQ1 in Accommodation Services at SCQF Level 4

SVQ1 in Food and Beverage Service at SCQF Level 4

SVQ1 in Food Preparation & Cooking at SCQF Level 4

SVQ1 in Hospitality Services at SCQF Level 4

The following document identifies where the competencies described within each of the units may also provide evidence towards relevant Core Skills. Where there is a relationship between the standard and the Core Skills, the SCQF Level for the Core Skill is indicated.

The approach for the signposting has been one where a judgement has been made as to whether a candidate may realistically be able to gather evidence towards either part or all of the relevant Core Skill. For example, in regards to Communication, most of the units have some level of coverage, however this is in terms of presenting an opportunity for communicating when reporting problems to a line manger etc.

Of note is the broad lack of relationship between the standards and Information and Communication Technology (ICT) (save with the exception of Front of House Reception). This is due, in part, to the high degree of function skill within the standard, that ICT plays little practical role within these occupations and that where new technology is used (for example with tills and similar revenue recording devices) such equipment is not reflected within the Core Skill descriptor.
