General guidance for candidates

General guidance

This is a formal assessment that you will be marked and graded on. You will be marked on the quality and accuracy of your practical performance and the written work you produce. It is therefore important that you carry your work out to the highest standard you can. How well you know and understand the subject, and how you have used your knowledge and skills together to complete the tasks must be clear to the marker. This means you will have to explain your thinking and the reasons behind the way you have carried out the tasks and how/why you have made your decisions within your written work eg as part of your planning reflections, or evaluations.

Plagiarism

This is an assessment of your abilities, so the work must be all your own work and carried out under the conditions stated. You will be asked to sign a declaration that you have not had any help with the assessment.

Your tutor is allowed to give you some help understanding the assignment instructions if necessary, but they will record any other guidance you need and the will be taken into account during marking.

Plagiarism is the failure to acknowledge sources properly and or the submission of another person's work as if it were your own. Plagiarism is not allowed in this assignment.

Where research is allowed, your tutor must be able to dentify which work you have done yourself, and what you have found from other sources. It is therefore important to make sure you acknowledge all sources and clearly reference any information taken from them.

Timings and planning

Where you have to plan your time, you should take care to make sure you have divided the time available between tasks appropriately. In some assignments, there are specified timings which cannot be changed and which need to be taken into account. You should check your plan is appropriate with your tutor.

If you have a good reason beeding more time, you will need to explain the reasons to your tutor and agree a new deadline date. Changes to dates will be at the discretion of the tutor, and they may so mark work that is handed in after the agreed deadlines.

Health and Sates

You must aways work safely, in particular while you are carrying out practical tasks.

You must aways follow any relevant Health and Safety regulations and codes of practice.

If your totor sees you working in a way that is unsafe for yourself or others, they will ask you to the prevention immediately, and tell you why. Your tutor will not be able to continue the assessment until they are sure you are ready for assessment and can work safely.

Presentation of work

Presentation of work must be neat, legible and appropriate to the task.

You should make sure that each piece of evidence including any forms are clearly labelled with your name and the assignment reference.

All electronic files must be given a clear file name that allows your tutor to identify it as your work.

Written work e.g. reports may be word processed or hand written unless stated otherwise.

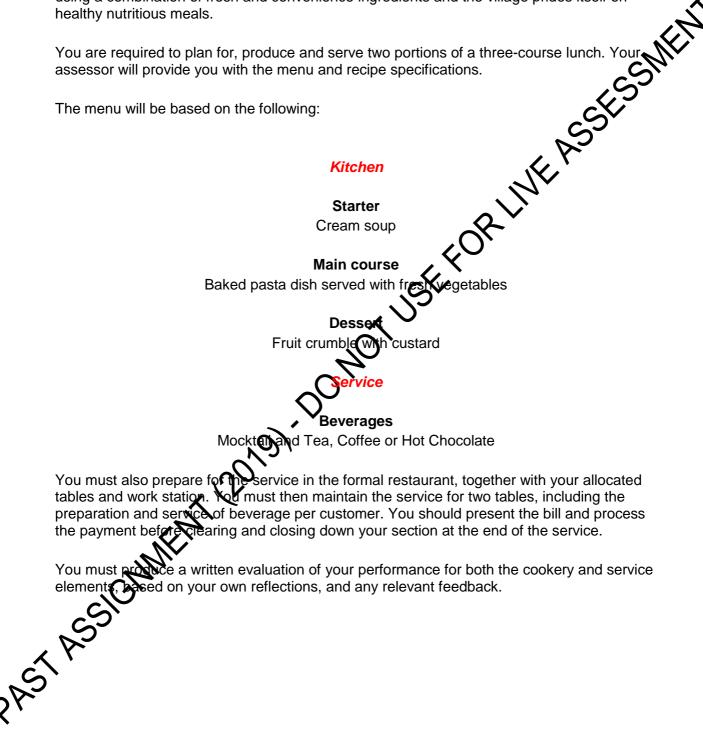

All sketches and drawings should be neat and tidy, to scale and annotated.

PASTASSICIMENT (2019)-DONOTUSEFOR UNE ASSESSMENT Calculations should be set out clearly, with all working shown, as well as any assumptions

7178-20-022 Level 2 Food Preparation and Service Synoptic Assignment 2019

Assignment Brief

You are working as a catering assistant in a retirement village where residents have the choice of dining in the formal restaurant or the casual dining room. The meals are prepared using a combination of fresh and convenience ingredients and the village prides itself on healthy nutritious meals.

Tasks

Task 1 - Planning

Your tutor will provide you with menus for cookery and service, a recipe specification and beverage list.

You will be required to produce a plan which must include:

- required tools and equipment for the kitchen and restaurant.
- food safety considerations.

What you must produce for marking:

Conditions of assessment:

- You must carry out Task 1 on your own, under supervised conditions.
- The menus and recipes supplied by your tutor way be taken into the assessment.
- Luchen and restaurant. Juderations. Judera • Both the tutor and candidate must sign declarations to confirm the evidence followed.

Additional evidence of your performed mance that must be captured for marking:

None for this task.

Task 2 – Practical (Food on and Cooking)

Produce the starter, main course and dessert as outlined in the brief.

Conditions essment:

- ry out the preparation and cooking on your own, under supervised
- use the appropriate documents produced in Task 1 in your execution of this Finished products in sequential order (excluding the beverages).

Additional evidence of your performance that must be captured for marking:

- Your tutor's notes on your performance, which will record your working practice, the standard and accuracy of the finished work.
- Photographic evidence as detailed below.

Task 3 – Practical (Food and Beverage Service)

Using your plan created in Task 1, you are required to complete all stages of the service of WEASSESSMENT the three-course meal for two tables, together with the required beverages detailed in the brief.

Conditions of assessment:

You must carry the task out on your own, under supervised conditions. •

What you must produce for marking:

- Table layup •
- Beverages •
- Time plan with annotations
- Completed customer feedback form (1 per table)
- A copy of the menu with any notes made during the briefing •

Additional evidence of your performance that must be captured for marking:

- Your tutor's notes on your performance, which will record your working practice, the standard and accuracy of the finished work.
- Photographic evidence as detailed below •

Task 4 – Evaluation

Produce a written evaluation of your performance for Tasks 1-3. You may use customer feedback to support your evaluation.

Resources

Candidates must have access to a suitable range of resources to carry out the tasks and, where appropriate, to have the opportunity to choose materials demonstrating the ability to select from a range of appropriate materials. Resources specific to each task are as follows:

- candidates will need to complete an allergen chart, such as the one provided to complete the end of this pack. Centre pro-formas can be used, but the •
- take into account their specific choice of methods, techniques, and compared to the specific choice of methods, techniques, and compared to the specific choice of the specific choice dishes. Where pro-formas are used, centres should ensure that they denot limit the candidate's ability to demonstrate knowledge and understanding
- candidates will require materials, equipment and ingredients duce the dishes.

Task specific quidance

- The assignment brief should be released two academic weeks before Task 1 to give • candidates time to complete research activities
- nomecessarily on the same day. Task 2 and 3 can be taken in any order and

Task 1

The recommended time for this task is a proximately two hours.

- Task 1 should be completed no more than three academic weeks before Task 2.

- Candidates must submit everything for marking at the end of three hours, even if not continue to finish these dishes once dishes are not completed. Candidates the three hours elapse.
- Candidates may also have some to wash dishes for them. Please note that this • does not include cleaning/clearing work stations. Candidates are responsible for managing their own workstations.

ermitted for this task is three hours to include preparation and The suggested time the service is customer dependent therefore may require more time (this service. Howeve included within the eight hours). extra time is

- ommended that Task 3 takes place in a working environment (which could be RWE within the centre).
- Tutors should not assess more than four candidates at a time.
- Candidates must have two tables allocated to each of them to provide a table service. A recommendation of one table of two and another with no more than four covers.
- The timings of the tables should be staggered, ideally within 30 minutes of each other, to ensure the candidates can show that they are able to prioritise the different tasks for more than one table.
- Candidates should serve a three-course table d'hôte menu with limited choices.
- Candidates should identify allergens on the menu to inform customers.

Candidates will be required to communicate with customers, take food and beverage orders, serve food and beverages at the table, present customer bill, process payments and obtain customer feedback.

Beverage Specific Guidance

- One Cold Beverage
- Cold Beverage
 The candidate must make and serve a Mocktail of the centre's choice for Solution in the centre's choic
- One Hot Beverage
 - Coffee (instant/ground/filter), tea (loose leaf tea/teabag), het chocolate
- A copy of the customer feedback form and a copy of the mer h allergens identified needs to be available.
- Candidates must submit everything for marking at the end the task.

Task 4

The recommended time for the completion of this task is approximately one hour.

- The candidate's self-evaluation of performance across Tasks 1, 2 and 3 must be • completed no more than one week after completion of the practical assessment.
- It is recommended that candidates reflect on their performance until at least the • following day before completing their evaluation.
- Candidate notes from their tasks can be used to support their evaluation.
- The tutor must not contribute feedback to inform the evaluation. Candidates should be encouraged to conject feedback on their dishes from customers on their service to support their aluations.

oading photographic evidence for Task 2 and 3 Taking and W are an important aspect of the evidence, but they should be kept to a minimum. Photograph Photog s must not be used to replace marker's notes.

ollowing is required for Task 2:

- a photograph of each completed dish
- a photograph of completed dishes together
- a photograph of the candidate in their chef's whites upon completion of the task.

The following is required for Task 3:

- a photograph of the table set up
- a photograph of the candidate in their restaurant uniform •

Photographs must:

- be in colour
- be of a suitable size (a maximum of two shots per one A4 page) .
- be taken in appropriate lighting with a clear focus to ensure the dish can be seen •
- include candidate's ID.

Time

ESSMENT The recommended time allocated for the completion of the tasks and production evidence for this assessment is nine hours. It is the centre's responsibility to an angle how this time is managed to fit with timetables during the assessment period and the requirements of each task. This may allow for some candidates to complete tasks at varving times.

- Task 1: approximately two hours will be required for the completion of this task (this • could be split into two periods to allow for a break, but the candidates must not take materials away).
- Sthree hours. This does not Task 2: the maximum time permitted for this task • include a maximum of 30 minutes setting up time.
- Task 3: the suggested time permitted for this task is three hours. However, the • service is customer dependent therefore a require more time (this is additional time that is not included in the overall
- Task 4: approximately one hour will be required for the completion of this task. •

* This time is intended to allow candidates to collect their tools and equipment, collect and weigh out any ingredients and organise their workspace. They are not permitted to begin any preparation or cooking.

Centre guidance

Guidance provided in this document supports the administration of this assignment. The following documents available on the City & Guilds website provide essential generic guidance for centres delivering Technical gualifications and must be referred to alongside this guidance: SMENT

- Technical qualifications marking •
- Technical gualifications moderation (updated annually) •
- Technical gualifications teaching, learning and assessment

This synoptic assessment is designed to require the candidate to make use their knowled understanding and skills they have built up over the course of their learning to tack problems/tasks/challenges.

This approach to assessment emphasises to candidates the importance and applicability of the full range of their learning to practice in their industry area, and support them in learning to take responsibility for transferring their knowledge, understanding and kills to the practical situation, fostering independence, autonomy and confidence

Candidates are provided with an assignment brief. They then have to draw on their knowledge and skills and independently select the correct processes, skills, materials, and approaches to take to provide the evidence specified by the Kief.

During the learning programme, it is expected that tuto where taken the opportunity to set shorter, formative tasks that allow candidates to be supported to independently use the learning they have so far covered, drawing this together in a similar way, so they are familiar with the format, conditions and expectations of the synoptic assessment.

Candidates should be made aware during loaning what the Assessment Objectives are and how they are implemented in marking the assignment, so they will understand the level of performance that will achieve them high arks.

Candidates should not be entered for the assessment until the end of the course of learning for the qualification so they are no position to complete the assignment successfully.

Health and safety

Candidates should not be entered for assessment without being clear of the importance of working safely, and practice of doing so. The tutor must immediately stop an assessment if a candidate work, upsafely. At the discretion of the tutor, depending on the severity of the incident, the candidate may be given a warning. If they continue to work unsafely however, ment must be ended and they must retake the assessment at a later date. their asse

iance with timings Caffup patimings provided are estimates to support centre planning. They refer to assessment time, not any additional setting up the centre needs to carry out to create the appropriate assessment environment.

It is the centre's responsibility to plan sufficient assessment sessions, under the appropriate conditions, within the assignment window, to allow candidates reasonable time to complete the assessment tasks.

Where candidates are required to plan their work they should have their plans confirmed for appropriateness in relation to the time allocated for each task.

Candidates should be allowed sufficient time to fully demonstrate the range of their skills, however this also needs to be reasonable and practicable. Candidates should be allowed to overrun their planned timings or professional service times (where they exist) in order for evidence of a range of their skills to be captured. If however, the time required exceeds reasonably set assessment periods, or the tolerance suggested for professional service times, the centre may stop the assessment and base the marking on the evidence up to that point, including the tutor's notes of how far over time the task has taken.

notes must be recorded on the practical observation (PO) form provided. The centre has flexibility to adapt the form, to suit local requirements (e.g. to use tablet, hand-written of evidence collected

The number of candidates a tutor will be able to observe at one time will vary hding on:

- the complexity of evidence collection for the task •
- local conditions e.g. layout of the assessment environment .
- amount of additional support available (e.g. to capture image/video evidence), • staggered starts etc,
- whether there are any peak times where there is a low f evidence to collect that will need additional support or any that are quieter.

It is advisable to trial the planned arrangements where possible during formative assessment, reviewing the quality of evidence cartured and manageability. It is expected that for straight forward observations, (and unless otherwise specified) no more than eight candidates will be observed by a single tutor a one time, and the number will usually be fewer than this maximum. The key factor to consider is the logistics of collecting sufficient evidence.

As far as possible, candidates should be distracted, or their performance affected by the process of observation and evidence collection.

Observation notes form part of the candidate's evidence and must describe how well the activity has been carried or pather than stating the steps/ actions the candidate has taken. The notes must be very rescriptive and focus on the quality of the performance in such a way that comparisons between performances can be made. They must provide sufficient, appropriate evidence that can be used by the marker (and moderator) to mark the performance using the marking grid.

Identifying which is about the performances that is different between candidates can clarify the charties that are important to record. Each candidate is likely to carry out the same stops so a checklist of this information would not help differentiate between them. However qualitative comments on how well they do it, and quantitative records of accuracy and olerances would.

The tutor should refer to the marking grid to ensure appropriate aspects of performance are recorded. These notes will be used for marking and moderation purposes and so must be detailed, accurate and differentiating.

Tutors should ensure that any required additional supporting evidence e.g. photographs or video can be easily matched to the correct candidate, are clear, well-lit and showing the areas of particular interest in sufficient detail and clarity for assessment (i.e. taken at appropriate points in production, showing accuracy of measurements where appropriate).

If candidates are required to work as a team, each candidate's contribution must be noted separately. The tutor may intervene if any individual candidate's contribution is unclear or to ensure fair access (see below).

The Technical qualifications guides on marking and moderation are essential guidance documents and are available on the City & Guilds website. These provide further information on preparing for assessment, evidence gathering, standardisation, marking and moderation, SSMEN and must be referred to when planning and carrying out assessment.

Minimum evidence requirements for marking and moderation

The sections in the assignment:

- What you must produce for marking, and
- Additional evidence of your performance that must be captured for man list the minimum requirements of evidence to be submitted for marking and the sample.

Evidence produced during assessment above and beyond this may be such èd, as long as it provides useful information for marking and moderation and has been pla duced under appropriate conditions.

While technological methods which support the capturing or creating of evidence can be helpful, e.g. pinboard style websites for creating mood boards, the final evidence must be converted to a suitable format for marking and moderation which cannot be lost/ deleted or amended after the end of the assessment period (e.g. schen prints, pdf files). Considerations around tracking authenticity and potentianoss of material hosted on such platforms during assessment is the centre's responsibility

Where candidates have carried out some work a group, the contribution of each candidate must be clear. It is not appropriate to bmit identical information for each candidate without some way for the marker and moderator to mark the candidates individually.

Note: Combining candidates' individual dieces of evidence into single files or zip files may make evidence management during internal marking more efficient and will greatly simplify the uploading of the moderation of the moderatio

Where the minimum requirements have not been submitted for the moderation sample by the final moderation deathing, or the quality of evidence is insufficient to make a judgement, the mode ation, and therefore any subsequent adjustment, will be based on the evidence that has been submitted. Where this is insufficient to provide a mark on moderation, a mark of zero may be given.

Preparatio candidates

Candidates should be aware of which aspects of their performance (across the AOs) will give ton good marks in assessment. This is best carried out through routinely pointing out good r poor performance during the learning period, and through formative assessment.

During the learning programme, direct tutor instruction on how to tackle practical tasks through modelling, support, guidance and feedback are critical. However gradual removal of this support is necessary in preparation for summative assessment. This supported approach is not valid for summative assessment.

The purpose of summative assessment is to confirm the standard the candidate has reached as a result of participating in the learning process. Candidates should be encouraged to do the best they can and be made aware of the difference between these summative assessments and any formative assessments they have been subject to. Candidates may not have access to the full marking grids, as these may be misinterpreted as pass, merit distinction descriptors. Refer to the Technical qualifications – teaching, learning and assessment centre guidance document, available on the City & Guilds website for further information on preparing candidates for Technical qualification assessment.

Guidance on assessment conditions

The assessment conditions that are in place for this synoptic assignment are to:

- ensure the rigour of the assessment process
- provide fairness for candidates
- give confidence in the outcome.

They can be thought of as the rules that ensure that all candidates who take an essessment are being treated fairly, equally and in a manner that ensures their result reflects their true ability.

The conditions outlined below relate to this summative synoptic assignment. These do not affect any formative assessment work that takes place, although it is advised that candidates are prepared for the conditions they will need to work under during summative assessment.

The evidence for the tasks that make up this synoptic assignment must be completed under the specified conditions. This is to ensure authenticity and prevent malpractice as well as to assess and record candidate performance for assessment in the practical tasks. Any aspect that may be undertaken in unsupervised conditions is specified. It is the centre's responsibility to ensure that local administration and oversight gives the tutor sufficient confidence to be able to confirm the authenticity of the candidate's work.

Security and authentication of candidate work

Candidate evidence must be kept secure to prevent unsupervised access by the candidate or others. Where evidence is produced over a number of sessions, the tutor must ensure learners and others cannot access the evidence without supervision. This might include storing written work or artefacts to tacked cupboards and collecting memory sticks of evidence produced electronicative at the end of each session.

Candidates are required to sign declarations of authenticity, as is the tutor. The relevant form is included in this assignment pack and must be signed after the production of all evidence.

Where the cancerate or tutor is unable to, or does not confirm authenticity through signing the decoration form, the work will not be accepted at moderation and a mark of zero will be given. If any question of authenticity arises e.g. at moderation, the centre may be contacted for justification of authentication.

ccessibility and fairness

Where a candidate has special requirements, tutors should refer to the Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments section of the City & Guilds website.

Tutors can support access where necessary by providing clarification to any candidate on the requirements or timings of any aspect of this synoptic assignment. Tutors should not provide more guidance than the candidate needs as this may impact on the candidate's grade, see the guidance and feedback section below.

All candidates must be provided with an environment, time frame and resources that allows them reasonable access to the full range of marks available.

SSMENT

Where candidates have worked in groups to complete one or more tasks for this synoptic assessment, the tutor must ensure that no candidate is disadvantaged as a result of the performance of any other team member. If a team member is distracting or preventing another team member from fully demonstrating their skills or knowledge, the tutor must intervene.

To support centre file management, tutors may specify a suitable file format and referencing format for evidence (unless otherwise specified e.g. if file naming is an assessment point for the accience in the second seco the assignment). Guidance must only support access to the assignment and must not provide feedback for improvement. The level and frequency of clarification & guidant be

- recorded fully on the candidate record form (CRF),
- taken into account along with the candidate's final evidence during •
- made available for moderation. •

Tutors must not provide feedback on the quality of the performance ow the quality of evidence can be improved. This would be classed as malpractice

Tutors should however provide general reminders to candidates hroughout the assessment period to check their work thoroughly before submitting it, and to be sure that they are happy with their final evidence as it may not be worked on further after submission.

Candidates can rework any evidence that has been produced for this synoptic assignment during the time allowed. However, this must be as a result of their own review and identification of weaknesses and not as a result of tutor feedback. Once the evidence has been submitted for assessment, no further an examents to evidence can be made.

Tutors should check and be aware of the andidates' plans and designs to ensure management of time and resources is a propriate, and so any allowed intervention can take place at an appropriate time.

Tutors should ensure that candidates' plans for completion of the tasks distribute the time available appropriately and may guide candidates on where they should be up to at any point in a general way. Any excessive time taken for any task should be recorded and should be taken into account during marking if appropriate.

It is up to the marken to decide if the guidance the candidate has required suggests they are lacking in any AC, the severity of the issue, and how to award marks on the basis of this full range of evidence. The marker must record where and how guidance has had an impact on so this is available should queries arise at moderation or appeal. the marks ai and is not, an appropriate level of guidance Nha()s

A tutor should intervene with caution if a candidate has taken a course of action that will result in them not being able to submit the full range of evidence for assessment. However, this should only take place once the tutor has prompted the candidate to check that they have covered all the requirements. Where the tutor has to be explicit as to what the issue is, this is likely to demonstrate a lack of understanding on the part of the candidate rather than a simple error, and full details should be recorded on the CRF.

The tutor should not provide guidance if the candidate is thought to be able to correct the issue without it, and a prompt would suffice. In other words, only the minimum support the candidate actually needs should be given, since the more tutor guidance provided, the less of the candidate's own performance is being demonstrated and therefore the larger the impact on the marks awarded.

- A tutor must not provide guidance that the candidate's work is not at the required • standard or how to improve their work. In this way, candidates are given the chance to identify and correct any errors on their own, providing valid evidence of knowledge and skills that will be credited during marking.

All specific prompts and details of the nature of any further guidance must be recorded on the relevant form and reviewed during marking and moderation.

Guidance on marking

Please refer to the Technical qualifications - marking, and - moderation cent documents for further information on gathering evidence suitable for marking moderation, and on using the marking grid and forms.

The candidate record form (CRF) is used to record:

- Details of any guidance or the level of prompting the ca Nate has received during the assessment period
- Rough notes bringing together relevant evidence from across tasks during marking. •
- Summary justifications when holistically coming n overall judgement of the mark.

The practical observation form (PO) is used to record:

Descriptive information and evidence of candidate performance during an observation. Although descriptions on the quality of performance should support decisions against the AOs, the notes should follow the flow of the observation, rather than attempting to assign evidence against the AOs at this point.

25	 AO4 Bringing it all together - coherence of the whole subject Does the candidate draw from the breadth of their knowledge and skills? Does the candidate remember to reflect on theory when solving practical problems? How well can the candidate work out solutions to new contexts/problems on their own? 	(1-5 marks) Some evidence of consideration of theory when attempting tasks. Tends to attend to single aspects at a time without considering implication of contextual information. Some random trial and error, new situations are challenging, expects guidance, narrow. May need prompting.	(6-10 marks) Shows good application of theory to practice and new context, some inconsistencies. Remembers to apply theory, somewhat successful at achieving fitness for purpose. Some consolidation of theory and practice.	(11-15 marks) Strong evidence of thorough consideration of the context and use of theory and skills to achieve fitness for purpose. Purposeful experimentation, plausible ideas, guided by theory and experience, fit for purpose, integrated, uses whole toolkit of theory and skills.
		Examples of bringing it all together: design and implementation of plan throughout preparation, cooking, finishing and service of food and beverages, ability to problem solve if required, reflection on performance. Poor integration of knowledge and Satisfactory integration of knowledge Strong integration of knowledge and skills, resulting in inadequate planning and badly executed tasks. Unable to resolve any problems, make adjustments or implement improvements. May require safety	and skills, resulting in sufficient planning and reasonably executed tasks.  AO5 Attending to detail/ perfecting Does the candidate routinely check on quality, finish etc. and attend to imperfections/ omissions How much is accuracy a result of persistent care and attention (e.g. measure twice cut once)? Would you describe the candidate as a perfectionist and wholly engaged in the subject? 	(1-2 marks) Easily distracted or lack of checking. Insufficiently concerned by poor result; little attempt to improve. Gives up too early; focus may be on completion rather than quality of outcome. Careless, imprecise, flawed, uncaring, unfocussed, unobservant, unmotivated. Examples of attending to detail: attention (including personal presentation), meeting	(3-4 marks) Aims for satisfactory result but may not persist beyond this. Uses feedback methods but perhaps not fully or consistently. Variable/intermittent attention, reasonably conscientious, some imperfections, unremarkable.	(5-6 marks) Alert, focussed on task. Attentive and persistently pursuing excellence. Using feedback to identify problems for correction. Noticing, checking, persistent, perfecting, refining, accurate, focus on quality, precision, refinement, faultless, meticulous.
