1 About your learner logbook

1.2 Introduction to the logbook

This logbook will help you complete your Level 3 NVQ Diploma in Hospitality Supervision and Leadership. It contains

- the units you need to achieve to complete your N/SVQ
- information about your responsibilities as a learner
- forms you can use to record and organise your evidence.

It will also tell you:

- about the Diploma
- what you need to do to complete your Diploma
- who will help you.

About City & Guilds

City & Guilds is your awarding body for this Diploma. City & Guilds is the UK's leading awarding body for vocational qualifications.

Information about City & Guilds and our qualifications is available on our website www.cityandguilds.com or email centresupport@cityandguilds.com.

2 About the qualification

2.1 What are N/SVQs?

The Level 3 NVQ Diploma in Hospitality Supervision and Leadership is a nationally recognised qualification gained in the workplace. It is based on National Occupational Standards, which are standards written by employers and experts in your industry.

When you achieve your qualification it will prove that you can work to the standards expected by employers in your industry. Your qualification will show you are competent to do a job and have the skills, knowledge and understanding needed to do it well.

NVQs are work based qualifications, so you should choose an NVQ that best matches the type of work you already carry out, or expect to carry out in the future. If you are not in work, your centre will need to arrange a work placement for your assessment.

2 About the qualification

2.2 The structure of the Level 3 Diploma in Hospitality Supervision and Leadership

How is the qualification made up?

The qualification is made up of a number of units, each with a credit value. Units are either mandatory or optional with each unit covering a different work activity so you can build up to the full qualification unit by unit (37 credits).

If learners wish they can take units that in total exceed more than 37 credits.

Your centre will explain which units you need to take and help you choose those that best match your job.

Level 3 NVQ Diploma in Hospitality Supervision and Leadership (7250-02)

To attain the qualification learners would have to gain a minimum of 37 credits. This comprises of:

- all of the mandatory units in Section A (23 credits)
- at least one unit from Section B (4 credits)
- the remaining credits can come from either Section B or C

* Learners registered before 1st July 2017 should use this unit.

 Learners registered after 1st July 2017 should use this unit.

Structure of a unit

Units describe what you must be able to do to show you can competently perform activities in your job. Units are broken down into

- Outcomes – the tasks you need to do.
 - Performance criteria (what you must do) – which describe what you have to do to for each task
 - Knowledge criteria (what you must know) – which describe what you need to know and understand
- Evidence requirements – a summary of the evidence you need to prove you are competent.

3 About N/SVQ centres

3.1 Types of centres

Assessment for your qualification will be carried out at your centre. Your centre may be your place of work, a college, training provider or a combination of these.

City & Guilds approves centres to offer qualifications and regularly monitors them to make sure they meet our quality standards and follow our assessment policies.

Centre responsibilities

Your centre is responsible for the administration of your qualification. Centre staff will

- register you with City & Guilds
- give you your City & Guilds enrolment number
- apply for your certificate(s) when you have completed your qualification or units.

Centres are also responsible for supporting you as your work towards your qualification. Centres will

- carry out an initial assessment with you
- tell you about any learning or training (and resources) you will need to help you complete your qualification
- provide an induction programme to explain how the qualification assessment process works
- produce an assessment plan for you.

3 About N/SVQ centres

3.2 Assessment roles

The following people at your centre will help you achieve your qualification.

The assessor

The assessor is the person you will have the most contact with as you work towards your qualification.

Your assessor will

- carry out an induction
- carry out an initial assessment using a skills scan
- help you identify any training you need
- agree an assessment plan with you
- help you plan suitable sources of evidence
- observe you carrying out your job in the workplace over a period of time
- ask you questions about the work you do
- make and record decisions about your evidence and
- judge when you are competent and meet the national occupational standards
- give you feedback about your evidence and competence.

Your assessor may be your manager or supervisor at work or somebody who visits you in your place of work. You may have more than one assessor depending on which units of the qualification you take.

The internal verifier

The internal verifier maintains the quality of assessment within the centre by monitoring and reviewing assessment and sampling evidence.

The external verifier

The external verifier is employed by City & Guilds to ensure that your centre meets the required national standards for quality and assessment.

The mentor

- is someone in your workplace who can help and support you as you are working towards your qualification but does not carry out assessments
- may be able to provide you with witness testimony for your qualification.

Witnesses

- witnesses do not judge your overall competence but may provide you with statements about your performance which can be used as evidence of your work.

4 About N/SVQ learners

Learner role and responsibilities

Your responsibilities as a City & Guilds learner is to

- provide your centre with your personal details so you can be registered with City & Guilds
- participate in an initial assessment and induction
- agree a personal assessment plan with your assessor
- collect and organise your evidence as agreed in your assessment plan with your assessor
- attend regular meetings with your assessor to discuss your progress and to amend your plans when required
- meet with other centre and City & Guilds staff to talk about your qualification and evidence
- make sure you understand and comply with Health and Safety law and all other regulations.

Your centre may ask you to agree and sign a learning contract with them to show how you will be assessed for your qualification.

Learner enrolment number

Make sure you keep a note of your unique City & Guilds enrolment number on the front page of this logbook.

You will need this number again if you take any other City & Guilds qualifications. Using the same enrolment number helps City & Guilds keep a record of every unit and qualification you complete.

Moving to a new centre

If you change jobs or move to a new centre before you complete your qualification, you may be able to complete it at a new centre. Ask your centre to apply for any certificates of unit credit for you before you leave, and add them to your records.

A new centre will need your learner enrolment number, your assessment records and evidence to help you complete your qualification.

5 The assessment process

5.1 Before you start your qualification

Initial assessment

Before you start work on your qualification you will meet with your assessor to discuss what you need to do to complete your qualification. This can include

- checking you are taking the right qualification level
- Identify any prior learning
- checking you have chosen suitable units
- identifying any training or learning you will need to help you gain your qualification
- agreeing an assessment plan
- signing a learning contract.

Skills scan

The purpose of a skills scan is to identify the skills and knowledge you may already have, and decide how this can be used towards your qualification. There is a skill scan form in this logbook you can use to record the skills you may already have.

5 The assessment process

5.2 Qualification assessment

Once you have chosen your units you will make and agree an assessment plan with your assessor. This will show

- the units the plan covers
- when you will be assessed
- where the assessment will take place
- what you will be doing
- what evidence you will produce
- who will assess you.

The plan should also indicate the methods of assessment to be used to collect your evidence.

Evidence could include

- observation by your assessor
- products of your work
- projects and assignments
- questioning – this could be verbal, written or computer based
- peer reports
- witness testimonies.
- professional discussion

Your centre will explain the different types of evidence to you in more detail.

6 Using your logbook

6.1 Recording forms

This logbook contains all of the forms you and your assessor will need to plan, review and organise your evidence. Your assessor will be able to help you decide which forms you need to complete and help you fill them in.

Learner recording forms

City & Guilds has developed these recording forms for you and your assessor to use.

Learner and centre contact details

Record these details on the form at the beginning of the logbook to easily identify who the learner is..

Learner résumé

You can use this form to record your personal details if you don't already have a CV.

Skill scan/Initial assessment

This can be used to record the skills and knowledge you may already have. This may be part of your initial assessment, but can be done in a different format by your assessor. It is important that you ensure that this exercise is carried out.

Expert/witness status list

This is used to record the details of staff that will provide you with witness testimony.

Unit record form

The unit record is used to record all of the work activities and tasks you do as you complete the unit. There is one unit record for each N/SVQ unit.

Unit assessment and verification declaration

At the end of each unit, you and your assessor will sign this form to show that you both agree that your evidence meets the standards.

Summary of achievement

This form is used to show how many units of your NVQ you have completed. When you have completed all of the units and are ready to ask for your certificate, you and your assessor will sign this.

Please photocopy these forms as required.

Learner résumé

If you already have your own CV you can use that instead of this form.

Unit 424

Support learning and development within own area of responsibility (M&L D7)

Unit aim(s)

This unit is about supporting colleagues in identifying their learning needs and helping to provide opportunities to address these needs. Encouraging colleagues to take responsibility for their own learning is an aspect of this unit, as is the learner's role in providing an 'environment' in their team in which learning is valued. For the purpose of this unit, 'colleagues' means those people for whom the learner has line management authority.

Health and Safety

All N/SVQ centres have to make sure that they provide a safe and healthy environment for training, including induction and assessment. City & Guilds external verifiers check this when they visit assessment centres.

You are responsible for making sure that you understand, and comply with, the Health and Safety practice and policies in the workplace where you will be assessed. Your assessment may be stopped if you do not comply, and your assessor will explain the problem to you. You may need to retake your assessment at a later date.

Equal Opportunities

Your centre will have an equal opportunities policy. Your centre will explain this to you during your induction, and may give you a copy of the policy.

City & Guilds equal opportunities policy is available from our website www.cityandguilds.com, City & Guilds Customer Relations Team or your centre.

Access to assessment

City & Guilds N/SVQs are open to all learners, whatever their gender, race, creed, age or special needs. Some learners may need extra help with their assessment, for example, a person with a visual impairment may need a reader.

If you think you will need alternative assessment arrangements because you have special needs, you should discuss this with your centre during your induction, and record this on your assessment plan. City & Guilds will allow centres to make alternative arrangements for you if you are eligible and if the N/SVQ allows for this. This must be agreed before you start your N/SVQ.

City & Guilds guidance and regulations document Access to assessment and qualifications is available on the City & Guilds website www.cityandguilds.com, from the City & Guilds Customer Relations Team or your centre.

Complaints and appeals

Centres must have a policy and procedure to deal with any complaints you may have. You may feel you have not been assessed fairly, or may want to appeal against an assessment decision if you do not agree with your assessor.

These procedures will be explained during induction and you will be provided with information about the Quality Assurance Co-ordinator within your centre who is responsible for this.

Most complaints and appeals can be resolved within the centre, but if you follow the centre procedure and are still not satisfied you can complain to City & Guilds.

Our complaints policy is on our website www.cityandguilds.com or is available from the City & Guilds Customer Relations Team or your centre.
