

Unit 302: Supervise and monitor own section

Activity 4: Planning information

---

- a) Working individually and using the information required for planning identified in your small groups and shared by peer groups, explain why each piece of information is required and how it is used to support the running of a section.
- b) Now discuss your ideas in a small group to establish any additional information that would aid the planning process.