

Unit 306: Monitoring and supervision of food safety

Activity 3: Monitoring

Importance of monitoring the processes critical to food safety.

Identify why it is important the following are monitored to ensure food is safe:

- delivery
- storage
- preparation
- cooking
- service of food.

Outline the main roles and responsibilities of a supervisor to ensure staff maintain acceptable standards and follow agreed procedures for food safety in the workplace.