message

AA: I met the Sales Manager of Float Limited yesterday. Float is a company which supplies helium, which we use in our balloons. They are opening a depot near us.

I need to know about the helium we buy now. Please send a memo (in your own name) to our Purchasing Manager, Vijay Kalman. Tell him about the possible new supplier. Does he think we can buy our helium from Float?

I want to know how many containers of helium we use each week. Tell Vijay I also want to know how much helium each container holds and how much the containers cost. Please ask Vijay to tell me if he thinks we need another supplier.

Thank you, Mark.
