

International Certificate in English Language (8939)

The City & Guilds International Certificate in English Language provides a reliable and easy to deliver computer-based English language test.

Our English language test package has been developed in association with the British Council, the largest English language teaching organisation in the world and like City & Guilds, a charitable organisation with a shared commitment to international skills development.

We have developed a computer-based test which is relevant, engaging, coherent and fair. The computer-based test package assesses all 5 key skills with questions from levels A1 to B2.

Your learners will be tested on:

-  Speaking
-  Listening
-  Vocabulary and grammar
-  Writing
-  Reading

Why choose us?

- City & Guilds and the British Council are recognised global brands. Combining our English Language and assessment expertise ensures this certification is a powerful addition to your learners' future success.
- Flexible and fast computer-based testing meaning quick results turnaround which is motivational for your learners. On-demand testing means flexibility in your scheduling.
- Support materials to get you up and running quickly with model training materials and learner support tools giving you the confidence to prepare your learners for success.
