Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care and Management (0071)

What is it all about?

You are about to start a programme of work-based training and assessment leading to a nationally recognised qualification, based on the National Occupational Standards for the industry. This learner guide has been written in order to provide you with information and support as you work through to achieving your qualification. As you make progress you will be able to demonstrate that you have the necessary practical skills and the knowledge to do your work effectively and efficiently.

Introduction

This document contains the information that centres need to offer the following qualifications:

Qualification title and level	City & Guilds	Ofqual	Last	Last
	qualification	accreditation	registration	certification

0071-34	Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care and Management (Coaching)	72

What is the Qualifications and Credit Framework?

Ofqual have introduced the Qualifications and Credit Framework to increase flexibility for learners and employers. It allows learners to build towards a qualification, rather than having to do all of it at the same time. Qualifications may be built up from individual units according to rules of combination. The qualifications and rules of combination (structures) are set out in this handbook. The units are derived from the National Occupational Standards, which are compiled by Lantra SSC, the Sector Skills Council for the land-based industries.

Delivery and assessment of this qualification is similar to the previous NVQs but there are some administrative changes that centres will need to put in place, such as access to unique learner numbers.

Each unit has been assigned a number of credits and the units will be assessed in the workplace and build up to a Diploma.

The Qualification

The Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care (0071 31 to 34) is a programme of workplace training and assessment leading to a nationally recognised qualification. It aims to:

- meet the needs of learners who work or want to work in the trees and timber industry
- allow learners to learn, develop and practise the skills required for employment and/or career progression in the trees and timber industry
- replace the following qualification: Level 3 NVQ in Horse Care (7482-03) (QAN100/1411/1) which expired on 31 December 2010

Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care (0071 31 to 34)

This qualification will form part of the Advanced Apprenticeship framework for Horse Care. It is a workrelated, competence-based qualification. It reflects the skills and knowledge needed to do a job effectively, and shows that a learner is competent in the area of work the qualification represents. The different routes available within this qualification are Horse Care and Management, Horse Care and Riding, Breeding and Coaching.

Who will be involved?

The learner

That's you! You will need to:

- negotiate and agree an assessment programme with your assessor
- negotiate and develop a personal action plan with dates for review and assessment
- collect the evidence which proves your competence in your job
- organise and reference the evidence in a portfolio
- judge the evidence against the standards of competence to see whether it is adequate to present for assessment
- present the evidence for assessment; this may include:-
  - attending an assessment interview
  - being available to discuss your evidence with the internal and /or external verifier if requested

Later in this guide we will explain how you can identify and collect evidence and how you can prepare for being assessed in your daily work.

The assessor

- will have experience in your area of work, must be occupationally competent and may be your immediate supervisor or manager or a visiting assessor from a training centre who will visit you a minimum of 3 times to observe you at work
- will be experienced in assessing
- will themselves have achieved a higher qualification or have significant and current experience in the area of assessment. Therefore you may have more than1 assessor
- can advise you on the planning and organisation of your evidence
- is responsible for making the decisions about your evidence and judging when you are competent.

The internal verifier

- is appointed by the centre where you are registered
- is responsible for maintaining the quality of assessment within the centre by checking the assessment decisions made by assessors
- will have experience in your area of work and must be occupationally competent
- will themselves have achieved a higher qualification or have significant and current experience in the area of assessment to allow them to act as an internal verifier.

The external verifier

- is appointed by City & Guilds to ensure that all assessments undertaken in your centre are fair, valid, consistent and that your centre meets the required national standard
- will make regular visits to your centre to observe assessments and examine portfolios of evidence
- makes regular reports to City & Guilds confirming what happens with assessment practice in your centre.

The expert witness

Wherever possible, the evidence which you produce should be witnessed. For example your assessor, line manager or colleagues may witness an activity or authenticate a document as being your own work.

Witness status

Witnesses fall into three main categories of experience:

- 1. Occupational expert and D32/D33 or A1/A2 assessor who is familiar with the standards
- 2. D32/D33 or A1/A2 assessor without occupational competence
- 3. Occupational expert who is familiar with the standards.

In some circumstances it may be possible to accept witness testimony from a non-occupational expert, e.g. for evidence for a non-vocationally specific skill such as dealing with clients, validating a competition result. In these cases, the following two categories of witness may be valid: 4. Occupational expert who is not familiar with the standards

4. Occupational expert who is not familiar with the standards

5. Non-expert not familiar with the standards, e.g. a customer.

Why do you need witnesses?

It is important to demonstrate that the evidence was produced by you under the circumstances described. The witness is therefore able to observe and report on your performance on tasks which produce evidence towards the work-based qualification. The job of the expert witness is to report to the assessor their observations of your performance. The assessor will then judge whether the evidence is sufficient.

How do you involve a witness?

The key to this is planning. In many cases someone, for example a colleague, may naturally be involved with your work and so be able to witness and authenticate evidence. However, if the work is usually unobserved, you might arrange for someone to be present (where practical) to observe your performance. Alternatively where you are working directly with or for a customer, you might ask the customer to act as a witness.

What do they have to do?

After observing your work, the witness will need to write a short statement describing what you actually did. The witness should be aware of assessment criteria for the activity and the evidence requirements which are explained in the qualification handbook. As you will be aware of the standards and the evidence you require, you may decide to write out the statement yourself and ask you witness to read it and sign if they agree with it.

You may also provide statements for yourself, e.g. to justify why you produced a product in a particular way, but this would usually need to be augmented by supplementary evidence such as a work sheet or witness statement from a customer.

A Witness Status List and a Witness Statement Form have been included in the portfolio builder pack for you to photocopy and use.

You must ensure that each witness is recorded with a sample signature in the Witness Status List. Only the approved assessor is qualified to judge the evidence. The job of the expert witness is to report to the assessor their observations of the learner's performance.

How will my competence be assessed?

Occupational competence can be described as the consistent demonstration of skill, knowledge and understanding, to the standard specified by the assessment criteria for each unit of the work-based qualification. Each unit relates to competence in a different area of activity within a job.

Assessment of your competence will be based upon realistic work place situations, performing purposeful and recognisable tasks which will require a combination of skills and related knowledge.

What is evidence?

Evidence is what you will need to provide in order to prove your competence, your ability to do the job and so meet the standards. You can draw on past experience to provide such evidence as well as collecting evidence from your current job. Your evidence will need to be filed and indexed in a portfolio. You will need to map your evidence to the assessment criteria and present it for assessment when you think each unit is complete.

Most assessment for your work-based qualification will be carried out by your assessor judging the evidence about tasks you have carried out. There are five basic sources of evidence and you may collect evidence from all of them:

Performance at work

Observation in the workplace is an essential source of evidence. Your assessor may watch you working and assess your performance against the unit.

Assessment guidance and examples of evidence have been provided for each assessment criteria in the unit. Evidence may also be provided by witness statements, work records, job sheets, or a diary of your work. In this case, you need to match the evidence provided by witnesses against the unit. Although evidence can be provided by witnesses, no unit of your work-based qualification can be signed off as complete without the involvement of a qualified assessor to judge the evidence presented.

Performance of specially set tasks

You may be asked to undertake a particular activity, e.g. a simulated task, project or case study, sometimes in a college or other training environment.

Questioning

Questioning may be written or oral, usually occurring as a result of an observed assessment. Your assessor will ask you questions to make sure you have the necessary knowledge and understanding to carry out your job activities to the required standard.

Historical evidence

You may have done things in the past which are applicable to your work-based qualification. These may be used as evidence, provided that they are sufficiently current and relevant to the qualification standard, e.g. a relevant qualification. This is sometimes known as Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL).

Simulation

Simulation should only be used where it is difficult to collect evidence through a real work situation, the real work environment or within an acceptable time frame. Simulations will usually deal with contingencies such as unexpected problems, emergencies or other incidents, which will not necessarily occur frequently.

Background evidence and previous experience

It is useful to include a copy of your CV, a copy of your previous or current job description, any previous certificates which relate to this qualification.

• Staff appraisals

Records of courses attended

You can also include performance evidence from previous experiences and achievement • Licences

- CV
- Job descriptions
- Certificates
- Records of achievement
- Products
- Accounts of experience • Endorsements
- Case studies or projects from previous work Employer references

If you wish to bring forward a large amount of evidence from past experience, please discuss this with your assessor to help you plan the presentation of this evidence.

Observed performance and products of performance

Work is a natural source of evidence and if your work includes the activities described in the assessment criteria for any of the units of the work-based gualification, then your assessor can readily observe you to judge your competence. If the activity covered by a unit is rare and is not likely to occur during the assessment period, then your assessor may advise you to use an alternative source of evidence or arrange a simulated activity for you.

Often there are products from work activities which maybe used as a valuable source of evidence, for example:

- Letters relating to work
- Completed Forms
- Job Sheets
- Plans
- Diaries
- Completed projects, case studies or assignments that are part of your work
- Finished or end products
- Witness statements about your work
- Contact with clients

- Reports
- Logbooks
- Checklists
- Tape recordings
- Visual aids/photographs/videos
- Authenticated reports from appropriate

personnel, e.g. line managers • Staff appraisals

- References received
- Witness Statements from clients

• Memos

Supplementary evidence

In addition to direct observation of your work activities and judging the evidence provided by products of this work and witness testimony, it will be necessary for your assessor to seek supplementary evidence. This may be done by asking you to:

- provide answers to oral or written questions •
- attend a professional discussion •
- complete written tests •
- provide a written personal account to support other evidence.

Learners completing the Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care as part of the Advanced Apprenticeship framework

Learners who are completing the Level 3 Diploma in Work-based Horse Care and Management as part of the Advanced Apprenticeship framework are required to undertake an additional knowledge based qualification. The qualification details are below:

0070-35 Level 3 Award in Business Management for the Environment and Land-based Sector QAN: 500/9232/7.

This single unit Award (10 credits) covers the underpinning knowledge for the Framework.

The assessment for this qualification is a City & Guilds set, internally marked, and externally verified assignment.

Appeals and Equal opportunities

Centres must have their own auditable, appeals procedure. If a learner is not satisfied with the examination conditions or a learner feels that the opportunity for examination is being denied, the Centre Manager should, in the first instance, address the problem. If, however, the problem cannot be resolved, City & Guilds will arbitrate and an external verifier may be approached to offer independent advice. All appeals must be clearly documented by the Centre Manager and made available to the external verifier or City & Guilds if advice is required.

Should occasions arise when centres are not satisfied with any aspect of the external verification process, they should contact Verification Services at City & Guilds.

Access to the qualification is open to all, irrespective of gender, race, creed, age or special needs. The Centre Manager should ensure that no learner is subjected to unfair discrimination on any grounds in relation to access to assessment and to the fairness of the assessment. QCA requires City & Guilds to monitor centres to check whether equal opportunities policies are being adhered to.

For learners with particular requirements, centres should refer to City & Guilds' policy document The application of reasonable adjustments and special considerations in vocational qualifications, which is available from www.nptc.org.uk assessor to judge the evidence presented is sufficient, authentic and valid.

There is a column alongside the assessment criteria. In this Qualification handbook this column is used for assessor guidance. In the Learner's Guide this column is used for recording the evidence. Records of direct observation may be written directly into this column or, if the evidence is on a separate document, the reference of where the evidence can be found should be entered here. If the evidence is cross reference to elsewhere in the Learner Guide and Logbook then the reference to where it may be found should be inserted. For underpinning knowledge criteria, the answers may be written in directly or completed on a separate page which can be referenced in the normal way. Below is an example of how a recording sheet may look, with entries by the learner, the supervisor and the assessor. Although several people may enter information here, it remains the responsibility of the

In the example above, Alan Boss is the learner's manager, Anthony Other is the assessor and Joe Goodman is the learner. All 3 can complete sections of the Learner's logbook. Supplementary evidence needs to be referenced as in previous NVQ qualifications. Eg in the example above the learner's Appraisal current skills and action plan would be referenced as Evidence1.

Guidance on the unit is given at the top. Any items of scope are dealt with within the assessment criteria: they do not have to be recorded separately. Alan Boss, and anyone else providing evidence, except the learner and the assessor, would need to complete a line on the Witness status list.
