Each level of the IVQs in Teaching, Training and Assessing Learning (1106/8106) is supported by a Europass Certificate Supplement..

The Certificate Supplement helps to ensure that qualifications are easily understood across national systems and makes it easier for learners to find employment or training opportunities beyond the borders of their own country.

It provides details on the skills that candidates are required to demonstrate in order to achieve a City & Guilds certificate, helps learners to prepare for job interviews and allows employers to choose the best candidate to work for their organisation.

City & Guilds was the first UK awarding body to launch the Europass Certificate Supplement and still the only one offering it across its qualification portfolio.

‘Supreme Group has a presence in over 25 countries across Africa, Asia, Europe, the Americas and the Middle East and with over 70 nationalities in the organisation, we are truly global and culturally diverse. As most of our 8,500-plus employees are based in remote, challenging and often austere environments, one of our biggest challenges is to ensure they receive the best class-room based and on-the job training.’

We have a strong commitment to nurturing in-house expertise and the Group Organisational Development and Learning Team regularly delivers training to all staff across all locations.

An excellent example of this was the delivery of the City & Guilds: ‘Train the Trainer program’ in Afghanistan. A number of employees travelled from all over Afghanistan to the capital, Kabul, to participate in the training. So eager were the employees to further their knowledge that many travelled long overland distances to reach Kabul, some in excess of 100 kilometres.’

SUPREME GROUP UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

‘This training really gives us additional knowledge and skill which will help us to be more efficient in our individual tasks. We’re looking forward to participating in further training because it is not only beneficial to staff but also to the company.’

‘It was a course well given and received, resources well utilised and I am certain this will go a long way in adding value not only to the individual participants, but ultimately to the Company as a whole.’
