Assessment Guidelines

Administering the assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All assessments must be taken under supervised conditions. This means that the candidate must be supervised at all times during the assessment. • Candidates are not allowed access to any other resources except for those specified in each assessment title. • Assessments are summative and must be taken when the candidate is deemed to have the skills and knowledge necessary to achieve (known as 'when ready'). • Candidates will need paper and pen and/or word processing equipment. • Word processing equipment can be used by candidates but only where they have the skills to use it, without it impeding their ability to answer the questions. • Candidates can use a dictionary. • Assessors may explain the rubric for all papers. For Reading assessors must not read/explain the texts or questions; and must not interpret the words for learners. For Writing assessors may respond to questions to explain difficult words and phrases to learners by paraphrasing and redefining but must not give learners solutions to tasks. • For Speaking, listening & communication candidates must be assessed individually. Assessors must ensure that each candidate is given the opportunity to meet the criteria. • Reading, Writing and Speaking, listening & communication are separate assessments. The assessment of a skill area must be completed in one session. • Each skill area can be assessed in any order.
Assessor guidance notes for marking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The assessor should mark the candidate paper according to the Mark Scheme for Reading and Writing and complete the Speaking, listening and communication Assessment Records. • Once the assessor has marked the candidate paper, the centre must use the City and Guilds internal assessment process before the candidate can be awarded a certificate.
Reading  30 minutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Give the candidate the Reading assessment paper. • Candidates may use dictionaries. • Explain the Candidate's Instructions to them which can be found on page 3 of the Candidate's paper. • Candidates should know what the following words mean: maximum marks, texts • You may read/explain the rubric but not the texts or questions.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tell them to complete the six questions. • The candidate has up to 30 minutes to complete the reading activities. Additional guidance on access and inclusion for functional skills reading Reading within Functional Skills qualifications is defined as the independent decoding and understanding of written language and text in a purposeful context. ‘Text’ is defined as materials that include the use of words that are written, printed, on screen or presented using Braille. As a reasonable adjustment, candidates who are classed as disabled under the terms of the Disability Discrimination Act (DDA), and use assistive technology as their normal way of reading, can demonstrate that they are able to independently meet the requirements of the reading standards through use of screen reader software. A human reader cannot be used to demonstrate the requirements of the standards as this does not meet the requirement for independence.
Writing  30 minutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Give the candidate the Writing assessment paper. • Explain the Candidate’s Instructions to them which can be found on page 2 of the Candidate’s paper. • Candidates should know what the following words mean: maximum marks • Explain to the candidate that they will be marked on using full stops and spelling familiar words correctly. • The candidate has 30 minutes to complete the assessment. • Tell them to complete the two tasks. • The tasks may be amended slightly to meet the needs of the candidate. However if this assessment is not appropriate at all to your candidate then you should choose a different assessment title. You must agree any significant changes with City & Guilds before the assessment takes place. Additional guidance on access and inclusion for functional skills writing Writing within Functional Skills qualifications is defined as the independent construction of written text to communicate in a purposeful context. ‘Text’ is defined as materials that include the use of words that are written, printed, on screen or presented using Braille and which are presented in a way that is accessible for the intended audience. As a reasonable adjustment, candidates who are disabled under the terms of the Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) and who use assistive technology as their normal way of producing written texts can demonstrate that they are able to independently meet the requirements of the writing standards through use of a computer and appropriate software. A human scribe cannot be used to demonstrate the requirements of the standards as this does not meet the requirement for independence.

Speaking, listening &
communication

10 minutes

1. Tell the candidate that you are going to have a discussion about lunch and ask them to follow these instructions.
 - Think about why they like to eat for lunch.
 - Think about two questions they would like to ask about lunch.
 - Tell you when they are ready to begin the discussion.

2. Have a discussion with the candidate about lunch and places to eat.

- Express your own opinions about what and where you like to eat.
- Ask the candidate about what they like and don't like to eat.
- Remember the candidate must ask you questions, as the assessor, you must facilitate this.

You should allow up to 10 minutes to complete this discussion.

Guidance on Speaking, listening & communication

Familiarise yourself with the information that follows so that you can answer the candidate's questions clearly and readily.

- Give the candidate time to formulate questions or to respond to contributions.
- Respond to the candidate's questions clearly and fully, not necessarily with complete sentences but naturally, in a friendly and relaxed manner.
- Speak clearly, in a friendly and relaxed manner, but with a slow and clear delivery appropriate to someone with Entry 1 Speaking, listening & communication language skills.
- If the candidate asks for repetition, repeat more slowly then, if necessary, reformulate using different language.
- As far as possible avoid using grammatical structures that are beyond the repertoire expected at this level (the Adult Literacy Core Curriculum is a vital point of reference if unsure about this).
- If the candidate says something that is not clear, ask them to repeat or clarify using a simple request such as 'I'm sorry, could you say that again please?'
- Indicate clearly the end of the activity: "That's the end of this activity, thank you."

You can have a discussion about a different topic if you wish.

Suggested other topics can include:

- avoiding money problems
- hobbies (including sports, music, gardening or other appropriate hobby familiar and of interest to the candidate)
- recycling.

Speaking, listening and communication within Functional Skills qualifications are defined as non-written communication, normally conducted face-to-face. In exceptional circumstances, assessment may take place remotely, provided that the medium through which remote assessment takes place:

- does not create barriers to achievement and success
- enables candidates to demonstrate achievement against the full range of standards using the full range of permitted strategies, and
- meets the security requirements specified in criterion 58f of “The statutory regulation of external qualifications” (QCA/04/1293).

The term 'Speaking, listening and communication', as used by these standards, is intended to be interpreted in a broadly inclusive way and is not intended to create any unnecessary barriers to candidates with speech or hearing impairment.

Examples of assessment evidence

- Details of the candidate’s performance must be recorded on the Entry 1 Assessment record sheet. Centres must use the Assessment record sheet provided by City and Guilds.
- One assessment record sheets fully and accurately completed are required at this level.
- The tick boxes should be completed where the assessment criteria have been demonstrated. The recorded comments should address the candidate’s performance as a whole and need not address each assessment criterion individually. However, when making overall comments it is important that the assessment criteria are not merely repeated, as comments should show HOW the candidate met the criteria.

Additional guidance on access and inclusion for functional skills speaking, listening and communication

The needs of individual candidates will vary but, as guidance, the term should be interpreted as meaning communication, discussion and presentation that:

- can include use of sign language (eg British Sign Language, sign-supported English) provided this is made accessible to all participants in the discussion. (It is recognised that BSL is a language in its own right and not a form of English. BSL is, however, permitted as an alternative to English for the assessment of Speaking, listening and communication where BSL is the candidate's normal way of communicating in the contexts described by the standards). No other languages are permitted as alternatives to English;
- can include access to augmentative speech equipment and such software as constitutes the candidate's normal way of working;
- does not depend solely on the use of written language or require the individual/s with whom the candidate is communicating to be able to read (as these skills are covered by the requirements for reading and writing).
