Qualification aim	Qualification level and definition	Progression routes
The Spectator Safety qualifications provide the required knowledge and experience to work as a steward in sports grounds, at music venues, festivals, marches and any other events, which require spectator safety and fulfil the regulations and requirements for stewarding set out by the government in the Guide to Safety at Sports Grounds (The Green Guide).	The Level 2 qualification is for those who wish to have a career or are already working in stewarding, spectator events, security or volunteering. This qualification forms part of the Intermediate Apprenticeship Framework. The Level 3 qualification is for stewards working in a supervisory role. This qualification forms part of the Advanced Apprenticeship Framework. The Level 4 NVQ in Spectator Safety Management qualification assesses the competence of stadium managers and safety officers, and covers planning of safety at an event, managing resources, and developing and implementing policies.	Our qualifications have a range of progression routes. Learners can progress through Levels 2, 3 and 4 and the level 2 and 3 qualifications are available as apprenticeships as well. Candidates can progress directly through to employment as an Event steward, Security officer/manager, Football safety officer, Spectator safety staff (festivals, carnivals, marches) and Event volunteer. Learners can pursue further Security-related qualifications such as Level 2 Award in Conflict Management (2884-02), QAN: 600/0705/09 or Level 3 Award in the Delivery of Conflict Management Training (2886-03), QAN: 600/0664/X. City &amp; Guilds and the Institute of Leadership Management (ILM) also have qualifications in Business Administration, Customer Service and Team Leading that will enhance career development.
