1.2 Opportunities for progression
On completion of this qualification candidates may progress into employment or to the following City & Guilds qualifications:

Employment roles:
• Sports Coach
• Leisure Centre Assistant
• Playworker
• Horse Riding Holiday Centre Ride Leader
• Health and Fitness Instructor
• Outdoor Activity Instructor
• Supervisor/Team Leader
• Youth and Community Worker

City & Guilds qualifications:
The Level 2 Award in Working with Participants with Disabilities in Sport and Active Leisure will provide a vast amount of opportunities for progression pathways through to the following qualifications. The level of progression will be dependent on candidates’ existing qualifications gained prior to gaining this Award:
• L2 NVQ in Activity Leadership
• L2 NVQ in Coaching
• L3 NVQ in Coaching
• L2 NVQ in Instructing Exercise and Fitness
• L3 Certificate in Industry and Organisational Awareness
• L3 NVQ in Instructing Exercise and Fitness
• L3 NVQ in Leisure Management
• L3 NVQ in Outdoor Education
• L2 NVQ in Playwork
• L3 NVQ in Playwork
• Progression routes through to Spectator Safety qualifications

This qualification will also act as CPD, furthering skills and knowledge and assist with creating an inclusive sustainable infrastructure for Sport and Active Leisure.

2 Centre requirements

This section outlines the approval processes for Centres to offer this qualification and any resources that Centres will need in place to offer the qualifications, including qualification-specific requirements for Centre staff.

Centres already offering City & Guilds qualifications in this subject area

Centres approved to offer the qualifications in Coaching, Operational Services, Playwork, Activity Leadership and Exercise and Fitness at Level 2 may apply for approval for the new Level 2 Award in Working with Participants with Disabilities in Sport and Active Leisure (4863-20) using the fast-track approval form, available from the City & Guilds website.

Centres may apply to offer the new qualification using the fast-track form:
- providing there have been no changes to the way the qualifications are delivered, and
- if they meet all of the approval criteria specified in the fast-track form guidance notes.

Fast-track approval is available for 12 months from the launch of the qualification. After this time, the qualification is subject to the standard Qualification Approval Process. It is the centre’s responsibility to check that fast-track approval is still current at the time of application.

Existing centres wishing to offer this qualification must use the standard Qualification Approval Process.

2.1 Resource requirements

Physical resources and site agreements

Centres must provide access to sufficient equipment in the centre or workplace to ensure candidates have the opportunity to cover all of the practical activities.

Human resources

Staff delivering this qualification must be able to demonstrate that they meet the following occupational expertise requirements. They should:
- be technically competent in the area for which they are delivering training and/or have experience of providing training. This knowledge must be at least to the same level as the training being delivered
- have recent relevant experience in the specific area they will be assessing
- be occupationally knowledgeable in the area of working with participants with disabilities for which they are delivering training. This knowledge must be at least to the same level as the training being delivered
- have credible experience of providing training.

Centre staff may undertake more than one role, eg tutor and assessor or internal verifier, but must never internally verify their own assessments.

Assessors and internal verifiers

While the Assessor/Verifier (A/V) units are valued as qualifications for centre staff, they are not currently a requirement for the qualification.
Continuing professional development (CPD)
Centres are expected to support their staff in ensuring that their knowledge remains current of the occupational area and of best practice in delivery, mentoring, training, assessment and verification, and that it takes account of any national or legislative developments.

2.2 Candidate entry requirements
Candidates should not be entered for a qualification of the same type, content and level as that of a qualification they already hold.

It is expected that candidates should hold a Level 2 qualification in activity leadership, coaching, Playwork or leisure or equivalent in order to complete the qualification satisfactorily.

Without evidence of formal qualifications, candidates must be able to demonstrate adequate prior knowledge and experience to ensure they have the potential to gain the qualification successfully.

As part of the assessment for this qualification, candidates must have access to a work setting/placement with participants with disabilities.

Age restrictions
This qualification is not approved for use by candidates under the age of 16, and City & Guilds cannot accept any registrations for candidates in this age group.

4 Assessment

4.1 Summary of assessment methods
For this qualification, candidates will be required to complete the following assessments:
• one assignment for each mandatory unit.

City & Guilds provides the following assessments:
• Assignments containing tasks that require demonstration of knowledge and practical skills.

4.2 Time constraints
The following time constraints must be applied to the assessment of this qualification:
• all assignments must be completed and assessed within the candidate’s period of registration; centres should advise candidates of any internal timescales for the completion and marking of individual assignments.

4.3 Assignments
Level 2 Award in Working with Participants with Disabilities in Sport and Active Leisure Assessment pack (stock code EN-20-4863).
5 Course design and delivery
5.1 Initial assessment and induction

Centres will need to make an initial assessment of each candidate prior to the start of their programme to ensure they are entered for an appropriate type and level of qualification.

The initial assessment should identify:

- any specific training needs the candidate has, and the support and guidance they may require when working towards their qualification. This is sometimes referred to as diagnostic testing.

City & Guilds recommends that centres provide an induction programme to ensure candidates fully understand the requirements of the qualification they will work towards, their responsibilities as a candidate, and the responsibilities of the centre. It may be helpful to record the information on a learning contract.

Further guidance about initial assessment and induction, as well as a learning contract that centres may use, are available on the City & Guilds website.
5 Course design and delivery

5.2 Recommended delivery strategies

Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Centres may design course programmes of study in any way which:
- best meets the needs and capabilities of their candidates
- satisfies the requirements of the qualification.

For further information to assist with the planning and development of the programme, please refer to the assignment in the Assessment pack (stock code EN-20-4863).
The qualification provides opportunities to gather evidence for the accreditation of Key/Core skills as shown in the table below. However, to gain Key/Core Skills certification the Key/Core Skills would need to be taken as additional qualifications.
