

ESOL Skills for Life (4692) Level 1 Sample Assignment

Me and My Community

Candidate's Paper

Writing to convey information

Candidate's name:

City & Guilds enrolment number:

Date of registration:

Date assessment started:

Date assessment completed:

Summary of achievement:

Writing _____

Activity 1

You have up to 45 minutes to do this activity.

1. Read the text and correct the punctuation errors.

There are 5 capital letters, 2 commas and 3 end of sentence punctuation markers missing from the text.

the benefits of your local community centre

a community centre is a public building where members of a specific community can come together as a group to enjoy group activities sports voluntary work and many other purposes that enrich the lives of citizens many community centres also offer adult education classes including english

community centres are generally open for the whole community or for a specialised group within the community

A new paragraph has been inserted because of a change in Tick the correct answer.

- time
- topic
- person
- place

2. Read the text and underline the five spelling errors.
Write the correct spellings.

Many community centres in the UK have there own building in which activities are based.

However, community centres can be fownd in schools or alternatively in churches.

Activities in a social community centre can vary from music and dance, sports, social suport activities, coffee mornings, fundraisers, child care and many other diffrent events to enjoy.

3. Complete the following text by selecting the grammatically correct word.

A community centre is an amazing facility which / where / that you can enjoy meeting a range of people and make new friends, as better / well / good as learn about hidden passions and talents you may not has / had / have known you had.

A community centre is normally located / location / locate in a town, city or village within easy walk / walked / walking distance or on a local bus route, so it is easily accessible for those more mature or with disabilities.

4. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the word in bold.

a.	We are <input style="width: 150px; height: 25px;" type="text"/> enough to have a new community centre.	Fortune
b.	On Friday we <input style="width: 150px; height: 25px;" type="text"/> go to the community centre to play snooker.	Usual
c.	People with disabilities can <input style="width: 150px; height: 25px;" type="text"/> access the facilities	Ease

5. Insert the correct phrasal verb into the text.

looking out	put off	stay in	going on	look forward to	finding out
-------------	---------	---------	----------	-----------------	-------------

My community

In my opinion, community is about people living and working together. It's about for each other and about the area where you live.

On Monday evenings we a night at the community centre and trying out new things. There are always lots of activities whether it's a five-a-side football match, yoga or Tai Chi classes.

Some people doing sport and would prefer to and watch TV but at the community centre we have a lot of fun.

Activity 2

You have up to 1 hour to do this activity.

Write a letter to the local council to ask for funding for a community project.

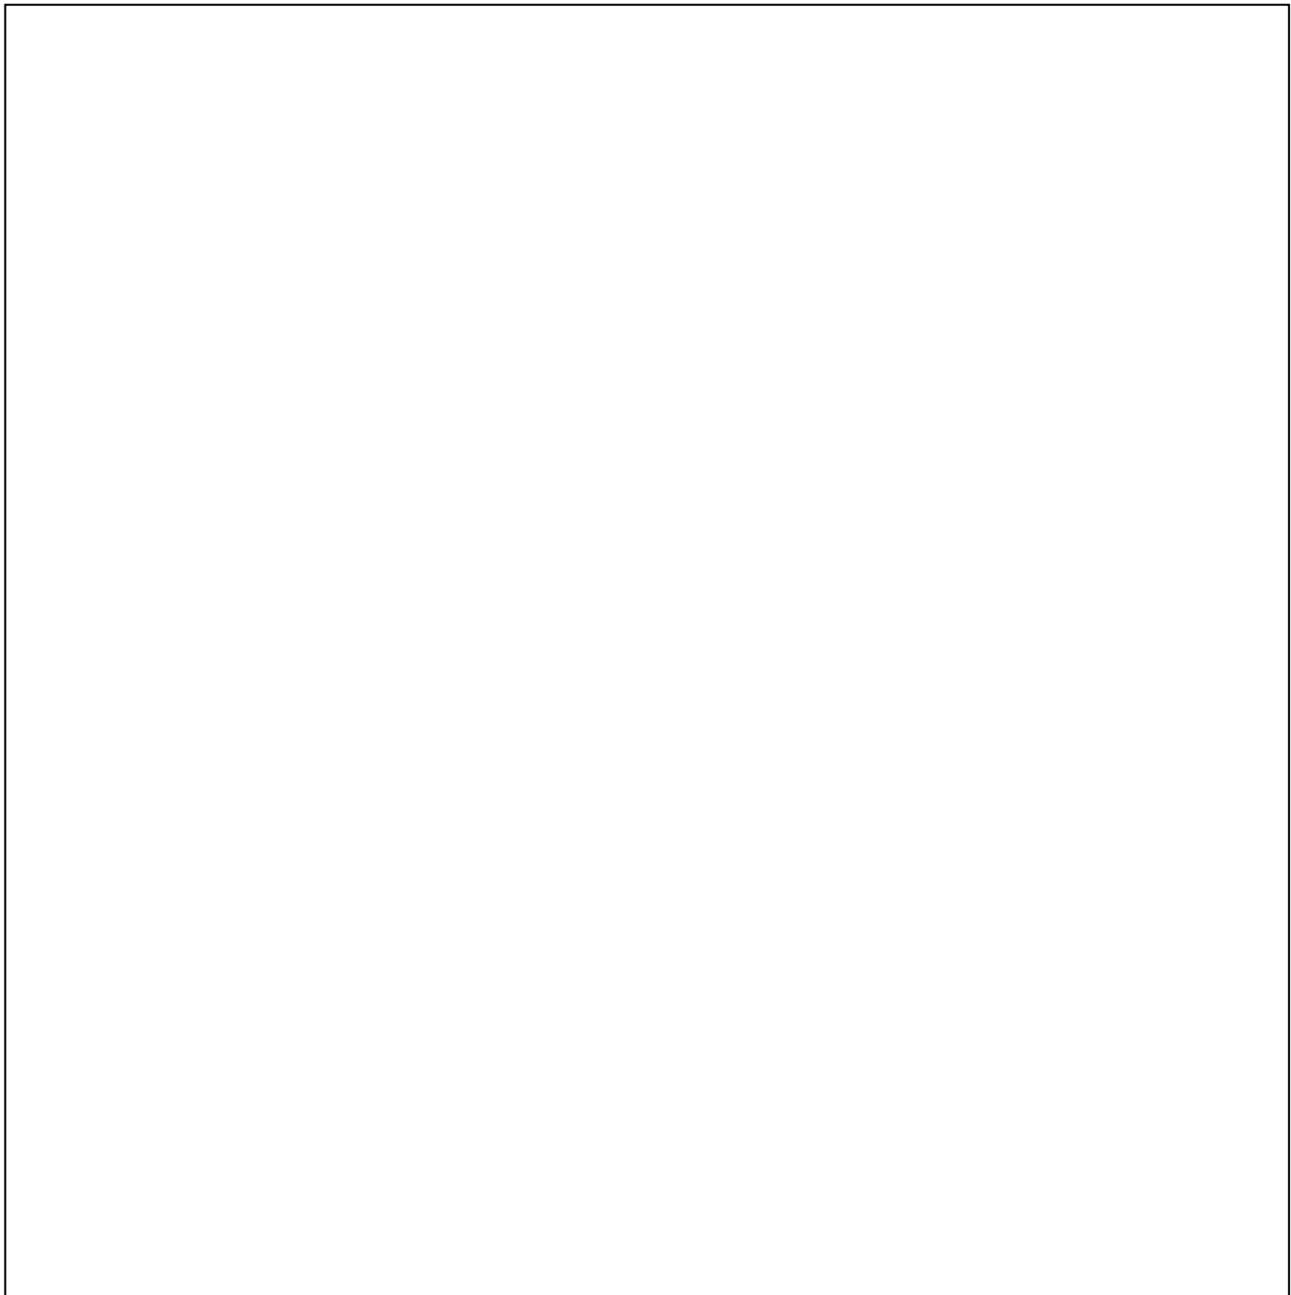

You should include information about:

- your project
- why it is a good idea
- who will benefit
- how the community will benefit.

You will be assessed on:

- planning your writing
- use of language
- layout and structure including paragraphs
- spelling, punctuation and grammar
- whether your text is legible and fit for purpose

Use this space to make notes or plan your writing.

Activity 3

You have up to 1 hour to do this activity.

Write a short article or blog for a community magazine promoting your project.

You should include information about:

- what you plan to do
- when you plan to do it
- who will be involved
- the benefit to the community.

You will be assessed on:

- planning your writing
- use of language
- layout and structure including paragraphs
- spelling, punctuation and grammar
- whether your article is legible and fit for purpose

Use this space to make notes or plan your writing.

Published by City & Guilds
1 Giltspur Street
London
EC1A 9DD
T +44 (0)844 543 0000
F +44 (0)20 7294 2413
www.cityandguilds.com

City & Guilds is a registered charity established to promote education and training